INTERNAL RISKS

- 1. Our business operations rely significantly on the continuous and timely supply of products from top 5 and top 10 suppliers, Also, we do not have continuing and exclusive supply agreement with them. Any interruptions or discontinuation of same will adversely impact our overall performance and profitability.

As our company is engaged in trading of wide range of Food and Health ingredients. We are using imported as well as domestic products for further processing and trading activities. Our products are majorly procured from the international market considering factors such as quality, price, lead time, inventory levels and credit terms. We are largely dependent on the nutraceutical, food and health industry for almost all of our products. We usually do not enter into long-term supply contracts with any of our suppliers. We procure these products typically through purchase orders which sets out the terms and conditions in relation to quantity, pricing and delivery details and do not enter into any continuing and exclusive supply agreements with our suppliers. If our suppliers do not perform their obligations in a timely manner, or cease operations or decide to discontinue our supply relationships, or at all, we would need to find alternative suppliers, within a requisite span of time. While we have not experienced any instance where any of our suppliers did not fulfill their obligations in a timely manner in the last three Fiscals that resulted in an adverse impact on our operations, we cannot assure that such instances will not arise in the future.

Following is the purchase breakup of the top five and top ten suppliers of our Company for the financial year ended March 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023:

Based on Standalone Audited Financials:

S. No	Particulars	Fiscal 2025		Fiscal 2024		Fiscal 2023
		Amount (₹ in lakhs)	% of total Purchases	Amount (₹ in lakhs)	% of total Purchases	Amount (₹ in lakhs)	% of total Purchases
1	Top five suppliers	7,371.50	42.49%	4,358.13	41.48%	5,426.84	46.55%
2.	Top ten suppliers	10,180.05	58.68%	6,025.23	57.34%	7,318.79	62.78%

Based on Consolidated Audited Financials:

S. No	Particulars	Fiscal 2025		Fiscal 2024		Fiscal 2023
		Amount (₹ in lakhs)	% of total Purchases	Amount (₹ in lakhs)	% of total Purchases	Amount (₹ in lakhs)	% of total Purchases
1.	Top five suppliers	7,371.50	42.49%	NA	NA	NA	NA
2.	Top ten suppliers	10,180.05	58.68%	NA	NA	NA	NA

Note: The consolidation was prepared only for the stub period ended September 30, 2024, hence the figures in consolidated financial statements for the FY ended 2024 and 2023 are nil.

As certified by M/s. Mehta & Associates, Chartered Accountants, Statutory Auditor of our Company, by way of their certificate dated June 23, 2025.

Although we have not experienced any instances where our suppliers were unable to supply us desired quantities of products or where we could not find a replacement for any particular supplier in the last three Fiscals, we cannot assure you that such instances will not arise in future. In the event any of our key suppliers is unable to provide us the required quantity or quality of products or in a timely manner, we cannot assure you that we will be able to find a suitable replacement and at an acceptable cost within our delivery timelines. Further, in the event of an increase in the price of these products, we cannot assure you that we will be able to correspondingly increase the price of our products. Our reliance on a select group of suppliers may also constrain our ability to negotiate our arrangements with them. We may experience unanticipated increases in costs due to fluctuations in the supply and demand in the national and international markets for nutraceutical products. Any such interruptions in the supply of these products, may have an adverse effect on our ability to trade our products in a timely or cost-effective manner and we may be in breach of our contractual obligations if any. The occurrence of any such event may adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. As we typically do not have exclusive arrangements with our suppliers, our suppliers could engage with our competitors and prioritize supplies of their other customers, which could adversely impact our ability to procure a sufficient quantity of products at competitive rates and within a reasonable timeframe.

2. We source our majority of the products from international market i.e. China. Any adverse developments affecting our procurement in this region could have an adverse impact on our revenue and results of operations.

There was a subsequent increase in the imports as compared to domestic purchases and significant imports are being made from China, considering factors such as quality, price, lead time, inventory levels and credit terms. This strategic decision allows us to benefit from the geographical advantages, ensuring timely delivery of the products. For the financial years ended March 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023, our product procurement from our suppliers located in China contributes 76.04%, 75.43% and 70.20% of our total Purchases respectively.

For detailed bifurcation with respect to geographical purchases from domestic market, please see risk factor no. 16 in this Prospectus.

Such geographical concentration of our business in the said region heightens our exposure to adverse developments related to competition, as well as economic and demographic changes in these regions, which may adversely affect our business prospects, financial conditions and results of operations. Factors such as competition, regulatory regimes, business practices and customs, industry needs, transportation, high prices in other markets where we may procure our products may differ from those in such region, and our experience in this region may not be applicable to other markets. Our inability to procure into areas outside such markets may adversely affect our business prospects, financial conditions and results of operations.

3. Our company's limited operational history in trading nutraceutical products and health supplements, combined with our wholly-owned subsidiary, Easy Raw Materials Private Limited (ERMPL), lacking manufacturing experience in this industry, may pose challenges in accurately forecasting future performance and effectively responding to evolving market conditions and also which might be considered as risks and challenges due to limited experience and regulatory complexity in the nutraceutical sector.

As our company was incorporated in the year 2020, it may not have established a consistent performance history, making it difficult to predict future success. The nutraceutical sector is heavily regulated and have limited operating history which may mean that the company has less experience in navigating complex regulatory environments, potentially leading to compliance issues. With limited experience, the company may encounter challenges in the research, development and processing of effective nutraceutical products, which could impact their viability in the market. Further, our Company may have less established relationships with suppliers, leading to potential disruptions, higher costs, or variability in product quality.

Further, our Company also intends to expand its business operations by way of backward integration by entering into manufacturing of nutraceutical products and health supplements business activity through its one of the WOS Company i.e. ERMPL for which our Company's two of the promoters, Mr. Ankit Shailesh Mehta and Ms. Parul Shailesh Mehta who are also the Directors in the ERMPL do not have any experience in the manufacturing operations of nutraceutical products and health supplements, however, the promoters have conducted extensive market research, industry analysis, also, ERMPL has been engaged with experts to gain a fundamental understanding of the dynamics, challenges and opportunities within this sector for which ERMPL has entered into technical collaboration agreement with Shriram Institute for Industrial Research (SRIFIR), The purpose of the Agreement is to establish a collaboration between SRIFIR and ERMPL for the development, production and formulation of a new nutraceuticals product, utilizing SRIFIR's Technical Know-How and ERMPL's expertise in the field of nutraceuticals formulation, manufacturing, and regulatory affairs. However, without prior experience or established marketing strategies, our company and WOS may face higher costs in acquiring new customers, affecting profitability. The nutraceutical sector is driven by trends and advancements in nutraceutical industry and our company and ERMPL with limited history, may struggle to innovate in line with customer demands and emerging research.

In spite of the engagement of ERMPL with technical experts, the lack of an established performance history in manufacturing activity can hinder our Company's ability to attract investment, as potential investors often look for proven track records as a measure of risk versus reward. Also limited background in the trading and processing business activity may also affect the creditworthiness, making it difficult to secure favourable financing terms or loans needed for growth and expansion. The regulatory landscape in the nutraceutical industry is indeed intricate, necessitating a robust understanding of compliance mandates. Our limited experienced approach to navigating these regulations could result in costly missteps, such as fines, product recalls, or reputational damage, further amplifying financial risks. Non-compliance might also lead to potential legal liabilities, diverting resources away from critical business operations and stalling growth initiatives.

As certified by M/s. Mehta & Associates, Chartered Accountants, Statutory Auditor of our Company, by way of their certificate dated June 23, 2025.

Such geographical concentration of our business in these regions heightens our exposure to adverse developments related to competition, as well as economic and demographic changes in these regions, which may adversely affect our business prospects, financial conditions and results of operations. We may not be able to leverage our experience in such regions to expand our operations in other parts of India, should we decide to further expand our operations. Factors such as competition, culture, regulatory regimes, business practices and customs, industry needs, transportation in other markets where we may expand our operations which may differ from those in such regions and our experience in these regions may not be applicable to other markets. In addition, as we enter new markets and geographical areas, we are likely to compete not only with national players, but also with local players who might have an established local presence, are more familiar with local regulations, business practices and industry needs, have stronger relationships with local dealers, relevant government authorities, suppliers or are in a stronger financial position than us, all of which may give them a competitive advantage over us. Our inability to expand into areas outside such markets may adversely affect our business prospects, financial conditions and results of operations. While our management believes that the Company has requisite expertise and vision to grow and mark its presence in other markets going forward. However, investors should consider our business and prospects in light of the risks, losses and challenges that we may face and should not rely on our results of operations for any prior periods as an indication of our future performance.

5. The restated Consolidated financial statements have been provided by peer reviewed chartered accountants who is not statutory auditor of our Company.

The Restated Consolidated Financial Information of our Company as disclosed in section titled “Restated Financial Information” beginning on Page no. 261 of this Prospectus for the financial year ended on March 31, 2025, March 31, 2024 and March 31, 2023 are provided by Peer Reviewed Chartered Accountants i.e., M/s. Bagaria & Co LLP, Chartered Accountants (having Peer Review Registration No. 014670) who is not the Statutory Auditor of our Company. In connection with the preparation of the Restatement of Consolidated Financial Statements, and in order to enhance the perceived independence and objectivity of the review process, the company have opted to engage separate audit firms to serve as our Statutory Auditor and the Peer Review Auditor. Our Company’s Statutory Auditor is responsible for the audit of our consolidated financial statements in accordance with applicable accounting standards and regulations.

6. Our Registered Office is not owned by us. In the event we lose such rights, our Business, Financial Condition and Results of Operations and Cash Flows could be adversely affected.

Our Registered Office situated at Office No. 403/404, 4th Floor, K.L. Accolade, 6th Road, TPS III, Santacruz (East), Mumbai-400055, Maharashtra, India is not owned by us and is taken on leave and license basis pursuant to Leave and License agreement dated June 02, 2023, entered between Ms. Falguni Nitin Sanghavi and our Company and No Objection Certificate is provided by Ms. Falguni Nitin Sanghavi to use the premises as the Registered Office of the Company. For further details, see section “Our Business” beginning on page 182 of this Prospectus. If we are required to vacate the current premises, we would be required to make alternative arrangements for new offices and other infrastructure, and we cannot assure that the new arrangements will be on a commercially acceptable/favourable terms. If we are required to relocate our business operations during this period, we may suffer a disruption in our operations or have to pay higher charges, which could have an adverse effect on our business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition.

7. We depend on certain customers for a significant portion of our revenues, Also, our Company in the usual course of Business does not have any long term contracts with its Customers and we rely on purchase orders for delivery of our products and our Customers may cancel or modify their orders, change quantities, delay or change their sourcing strategy. Loss of one or more of our top Customers or a reduction in their demand for our products or reduction in revenue derived from them may adversely affect our Business, Results of Operations and Financial Condition.

Our Company has in the past received repeat orders from our customers and they continue to engage us, however we do not enter into long-term purchase contracts with our customers and we rely on purchase orders which govern the volume and other terms of our sale of products to them. Many of the purchase orders we receive from our customers specify pricing terms and the delivery schedule. Absence of any long-term contracts or contractual exclusivity with respect to our Business Arrangements with such Customers poses a challenge on our ability to continue to supply our products to these Customers in future. Moreover, we depend on a limited number of Customers, which exposes us to a risk of Customer concentration.

The table below sets forth the number of customers renewed and discontinued in each of the years indicated:

Based on Standalone Audited Financials:

Sr. No.	Particulars	For the year ended

As certified by M/s. Mehta & Associates, Chartered Accountants, Statutory Auditor of our Company, by way of their certificate dated June 23, 2025.

Since our revenues depend on a select number of customers, any adverse developments in our relationships with them or any disputes with them may adversely affect our business and revenues. The loss of one or more of our significant customers or a reduction in the amount of business we obtain from them could have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations. There were Customers who have discontinued in the past periods however, majority of the number of customers were also renewed in the last 3 fiscals, the data of the same is mentioned under the table above which sets forth the number of customers renewed and discontinued in each of the years indicated. However, our reliance on a select group of customers may also constrain our ability to negotiate our arrangements, which may have an impact on our profit margins and financial performance. The deterioration of the financial condition or a decline in the budgetary allocations of these customers could reduce their demand for our products and result in a significant decrease in the revenues we derive from them.

Furthermore, we do not have firm commitments in the form of continuing or long-term supply agreements with our customers. Certain customer orders may also provide them with the unilateral right to terminate/modify their orders with us by way of providing notice. We need to maintain sufficient inventory levels to meet customer expectations at all times. Accumulating excess inventory could increase our inventory costs, and a failure to have adequate inventory in stock to fulfil customer orders which could result in inability to meet customer demand or loss of customers. As actual orders by our customers are typically placed by way of on-going purchase orders, we are exposed to significant or unexpected changes in product specifications and delivery schedules, which may result in a mismatch between our goods for re-trade, thereby increasing our costs for maintaining inventory. Our inability to forecast the level of customer demand for our products as well as our inability to accurately schedule our purchases and manage our inventory may adversely affect our business and cash flows from operations. The loss of business from any of the customers due to any reason could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

8. There are certain non-compliance/delay filings noticed in some of our corporate records relating to forms filed with the Registrar of Companies and other provisions of Companies Act, 2013. Any penalty or action taken by any regulatory authorities in future, for non-compliance with provisions of corporate or any other law could impact the financial position of the Company to that extent.

Further, the Company has taken its first financial year from the date of incorporation i.e. March 06, 2020 to March 31, 2020 and has not complied with the provision of Section 2 (41) of the Companies Act, 2013 in terms of the financial year, however, as a corrective measure, Company has filed GNL-1 form under Section 441 of the Act, for Compounding of offence for non-compliance of the provision of Section 2 sub-section (41) of the Companies Act, 2013. Further our company had filed e-form DIR-12 for change in designation and fixation of remuneration of Mr. Ankit Shailesh Mehta, in which board resolution has been attached in the form which mentions the period of appointment and fixation of remuneration as 5 years instead of 3 years whereas Special resolution attached in the form mentions the correct period, which is a clerical mistake done by our company in the board resolution. These inadvertent mistakes were due to lack of appointment of experienced Company Secretary.

While no legal proceedings or regulatory action has been initiated against our Company in relation to such non-compliance or instances of non-filings or incorrect filings or delays in filing statutory forms with the RoC as of the date of this Prospectus, we cannot assure you that such legal proceedings or regulatory actions will not be initiated against our Company in future and we cannot assure you that we will not be subject to penalties imposed by concerned regulatory authorities in this respect. 12. We have incurred financial indebtedness, also certain of our financing arrangements involve variable interest rates and an increase in interest rates may adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition.

Our company operates in the industry which is working capital intensive in nature and we fund a large part of our operations through financing from banks, Promoters and other institutions. As at the Financial Year ended March 31, 2025, we had total financial indebtedness of ₹1,702.82 lakhs. For further information on our total borrowings, see “Financial Indebtedness” on page 296 of this Prospectus. We usually finance our working capital requirements mainly through our internal accruals and arrangements with banks. Our ability to borrow and the terms of our borrowings will depend on our financial condition, the stability of our cash flows and our capacity to service debt in a rising interest rate environment. If our future cash flows from operations and other capital resources are insufficient to pay our debt obligations or our contractual obligations, or to fund our other liquidity needs, we may be forced to sell assets or attempt to restructure or refinance our existing indebtedness. Our ability to restructure or refinance our debt will depend on the condition of the capital markets, our financial condition at such time and the terms of our other outstanding debt instruments.

Any refinancing of our debt could be at higher interest rates and may require us to comply with more onerous covenants, which could further restrict our business operations. We are susceptible to changes in interest rates and the risks arising therefrom. Certain of our financing agreements provide for interest at variable rates and the lenders are entitled to charge the applicable rate of interest, which is a combination of a base rate/MCLR rate that depends upon the policies of the RBI and a contractually agreed spread. Further, in recent years, the GoI has taken measures to control inflation, which included tightening the monetary policy by raising interest rates. As such, any increase in interest rates may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows, and financial condition.

Further, our Company proposes to repay/prepay certain of the borrowings from the offer proceeds, However, if the Company is unable to repay such debt, the Company will not be able to restructure its debt financing.

MCA issued a public notice vide No. ROC/Mum/LLP/Strike off/ Public dated July 10, 2018, giving the list of names of the LLP's which requires LLP to strike off from the MCA records under section 75 of Limited Liability Partnership Act 2008, due to not carrying on any business or operation for a period of two years or more as they have not filed any financial statements for the last two financial years. Due to which Robotrix Technologies LLP was struck off and Mr. Ankit Shailesh Mehta was disassociated as their designated partner from May 31, 2018.

However, after the struck off of the Robotrix Technologies LLP, there have been no notice issued by MCA and there are no other instances in the past, wherein any of the promoters have been disassociated with any of the Companies or LLP which was struck off as mentioned above, Although the Promoters exercises reasonable care to ensure that they are not associated with such Companies and LLP, we cannot assure you that such regulatory actions will not be initiated against any of the Companies or LLP in future.

As certified by M/s. Mehta & Associates, Chartered Accountants, Statutory Auditor of our Company, by way of their certificate dated June 23, 2025.

Such geographical concentration of our business from this state heightens our exposure to adverse developments related to competition, as well as economic and demographic changes in that region which may adversely affect our business prospects, financial conditions and results of operations. Factors such as competition, regulatory regimes, business practices and customs, industry needs, transportation, high prices in other markets where we may procure our raw materials may differ from those in such regions, and our experience in these regions may not be applicable to other markets. Our inability to procure into areas outside such markets may adversely affect our business prospects, financial conditions and results of operations.

17. Our Wholly-Owned Subsidiaries have incurred losses in the past years, we cannot assure you that the wholly owned Subsidiary Companies will not incur losses in the future or that such losses will not adversely affect our reputation or our business.

One of the significant risk factors associated with the potential loss of subsidiaries is the impact on overall financial performance and market position. Subsidiaries often contribute to a company's revenue, brand recognition, and access to new markets. Our WOS company ERMPL and VBPL, does not generate revenue from any business operations and losses are being generated, the details of which are given below. The loss of one or more of these entities can lead to reduced income streams, diminished operational capabilities, and loss of competitive advantage. Additionally, it may create challenges in customer relationships and hinder business growth ambitions. The reasons for loss could vary, including economic downturns, regulatory changes, mismanagement or strategic misalignment. As a result, our company's stability and shareholder confidence could be adversely affected. Loss of subsidiaries can lead to a significant reduction in revenue and profit and may affect cash flow and overall financial health. Subsidiaries often play a critical role in a company's supply chain, distribution, or operations and our WOS's have no business activities as on date, hence there is no significant contribution by our WOS in our revenue and profits and their loss can disrupt these processes and lead to inefficiencies. It may reduce and affect competitive advantage, and alter market dynamics, potentially inviting stronger competition and may also lead to legal disputes, regulatory consequences, or compliance issues, particularly if there are contracts or obligations in place, due to inexperience in nutraceutical and any other industry.

Our Wholly owned Subsidiary Companies, ERMPL and VBPL have incurred losses in the following financial years for which their respective audited financial statements were available, as set forth in the table below:

ERMPL:

(₹ in Lakhs)

Particulars	March 31, 2025	March 31, 2024	March 31, 2023

Profit/Loss after tax	(12.68)	0.17	(0.42)
Net Worth	(11.93)	0.76	0.58

ERMPL was incorporated on December 14, 2020. Our company acquired 99% stake in ERMPL on September 01, 2024.*

VBPL:

(₹ in Lakhs)

Particulars	March 31, 2025	March 31, 2024	March 31, 2023
Profit/Loss after tax	(10.96)	-	-
Net Worth	(9.96)	1.00	1.00

VBPL was incorporated on March 16, 2023. Our company acquired 99% stake in VBPL on September 01, 2024.*

We cannot assure you that our wholly owned Subsidiary Companies will not incur losses in the future or that such losses will not adversely affect our reputation or our business. For further details, see “Our Group Companies” on page 262 of this Prospectus.

18. Our Order Book may not be representative of our future results. Orders included in our Book may be delayed, cancelled or not fully paid for by our customers, which could materially harm our cash flow position, revenues and earnings.

As on March 31, 2025, our Order Book was ₹ 866.84 Lakhs. Our Order Book comprises the estimated revenues from the ongoing orders. Further, our industry in which we deal into is a fast moving, as and when the order is received, the same is executed on an immediate basis, hence, our Order Book does not necessarily indicate future earnings related to the orders mentioned. We could also encounter problems executing the orders or executing it on a timely basis i.e. whether we could be able to execute on an immediate basis or not. Moreover, factors beyond our control or the control of our customers could postpone an order or cause cancellation of such order fully or partially, including delays or failures to obtain necessary permits, authorizations, permissions and other types of difficulties or obstructions for successful completion of such contracts.

These changes in the Order Book could be a result of exercises of our customers’ discretion, problems we encounter in order execution, or reasons outside our control or the control of our customers, we cannot predict with certainty when, if or to what extent an Order Book will be performed. Even relatively short delays or surmountable difficulties in the execution of an order could result in our failure to receive on a timely basis or at all, all payments otherwise due to us.

Our inability to complete or monetize such work in a timely manner, or at all, may adversely affect our business and results of operations. Hence, our Order Book may not be indicative of our future results due to various factors including delays, reduction in scope, cancellation, execution difficulty, payment postponement or payment default in regard to our Order Book or any other incomplete orders, or disputes with customers in respect of any of the foregoing and due to fast moving business industry which could adversely affect our cash flow position, revenues and earnings.

19. The technical collaboration agreement executed by our WOS, ERMPL can have potential implications of operating expenses which could result in hindrances to our goodwill and business operations.

30. In case of our inability to obtain, renew or maintain the statutory and regulatory licenses, permits and approvals required to operate our business it may have a material adverse effect on our business.

We are governed by various laws and regulations for our business and operations. We are required, and will continue to be required, to obtain and hold relevant licenses, approvals and permits at state and central government levels for doing our business. The approvals, licenses, registrations and permits obtained by us may contain conditions. While we have obtained a significant number of approvals, licenses, registrations and permits from the relevant authorities, there can be no assurance that the relevant authority will issue or renew expired approvals within the applicable time period or at all. Any delay in receipt or non-receipt of such approvals, licenses, registrations and permits could result in cost and time overrun or which could affect our related operations.

These laws and regulations governing us are increasingly becoming stringent and may in the future create substantial compliance or liabilities and costs. While we endeavour to comply with applicable regulatory requirements, it is possible that such compliance measures may restrict our business and operations, result in increased cost and onerous compliance measures, and an inability to comply with such regulatory requirements may attract penalty. Furthermore, we cannot assure you that the approvals, licenses, registrations and permits issued to us will not be suspended or revoked in the event of non-compliance or alleged non-compliance with any terms or conditions thereof, or pursuant to any regulatory action. Any suspension or revocation of any of the approvals, licenses, registrations and permits that has been or may be issued to us may affect our business and results of operations.

31. Our company lacks listed peer companies for comparison, this absence of comparable may lead to uncertainty in assessing investment viability for the Investors.

Without peer benchmarks, investors may struggle to understand performance metrics or industry standards, increasing the risk of misallocation of capital. Additionally, it heightens the risk of insufficient market liquidity, as the absence of comparable companies might deter potential investors and make it harder for the issuer to attract funding or achieve favorable terms in financial transactions.

The absence of listed peer companies not only complicates valuation but also obscures competitive dynamics, making it difficult for investors to identify the issuer's relative strengths and weaknesses within its industry. This lack of visibility can result in heightened volatility, as market sentiment may be influenced by broader economic conditions or unrelated sectors, rather than the issuer's actual performance. Furthermore, the issuer might face challenges in understanding market trends and investor expectations, which can hinder strategic decision-making and operational planning. Additionally, the lack of a peer company can limit the company's access to best practices and innovations that are often shared within a competitive landscape, potentially stalling its growth and adaptation in a rapidly changing market. Investors may also find it harder to gauge operational efficiencies or management effectiveness without comparatives, raising concerns over governance. Overall, the absence of a peer framework makes it increasingly difficult to evaluate risk-reward profiles, leading to potential mispricing and less informed investment decisions.

32. Fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates could materially affect our financial results.

We procure majority of our products in international market from China. Our supplier base in international market is from China. However, our foreign currency exposure is with USD. Therefore, increases or decreases in the value of the Indian Rupees against other major currencies i.e. USD affect our net operating cost, Purchase Cost and the value of profit and loss items denominated in foreign currencies. A significant portion of our consolidated procurement of our products are international and we may continue to procure the same in foreign currencies. Our ultimate realised loss or gain with respect to currency fluctuations will generally depend on the size and type of cross-currency exposures that we are exposed to the currency exchange rates associated with these exposures and changes in those rates, and other factors. All of these factors could materially adversely impact our results of operations, financial position and cash flows.

The following table sets out our purchases denominated in foreign currencies and their percentage in comparison with total expenses for the financial year ended March 31, 2025, 2024 and 2023 as per Audited Standalone Financial Statements:

Particulars	For the Financial Year ended on
	2025	2024	2023
Purchases in Foreign Currencies	14,188.48	8,047.30	7,880.58
Percentage of total purchases (%)	82.86%	75.20%	65.75

(₹ in lakhs)

Economic, political and market conditions can adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition, including our revenue growth and profitability, which in turn could adversely affect our stock price. For further details, see “Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” on page 302 of the Prospectus.

33. We operate in a competitive environment and face fair competition in our business from organized and unorganized players, which may adversely affect our business operations and financial condition.

The Indian nutraceutical market is largely fragmented comprising of organized and unorganized sectors. The rates vary depending upon the demand supply pattern prevailing in the market. Geographies also play a vital role in deciding the rates. We face competition from local dealers as well as from organized players which are larger and have substantially greater resources than us. However, we have been able to leverage economies of scale to gain an advantage. We believe that our wide range of products with low cost and best storage facilities, provides us an edge in the competition.

Competition may result in pricing pressures, reduced profit margins, lost market share or a failure to grow our market share, any of which could substantially harm our business and results of operations. The domestic segment which we cater to is fragmented and fairly competitive. We compete primarily on the basis of customer satisfaction and marketing. Thus, some of our competitors may have certain other advantages over us, including established track record, superior product offerings, larger portfolio of products, technology and greater market penetration, which may allow our competitors to better respond to market trends. They may also have the ability to spend more aggressively on marketing initiatives and may have more flexibility to respond to changing business and economic conditions than we do. We believe that in order to compete effectively, we must continue to maintain our reputation, be flexible and prompt in responding to rapidly changing market demands and customer preferences, and offer customer quality products at competitive prices. There can be no assurance that we can effectively compete with our competitors in the future, and any such failure to compete effectively may have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

34. Any disruption in our information technology systems may adversely affect our business, results of operations and prospects.

We are highly dependent on the information technology systems of our company. Our entire business is based on the successful and smooth running of information technology system of our organization.

Our Company is a technology-first company and have adopted various tools to manage the business operations efficiently:

- a) Zoho Books – ERP for accounting and MIS
- b) Zoho Work Place
- c) Zemi System – Supply Chain Management

The growth of our business is dependent on smooth functioning of information technology systems of our company. The information and technology system are subject to damage or incapacitation by natural disasters, human error, power loss, sabotage, computer viruses, hacking, acts of terrorism and similar events or the loss of support services from third parties. Considering the nature of our business and the industry in which we operate, it is imperative for us to have a robust information technology platform. If our data capturing, processing and sharing cannot be integrated and/or we experience any defect or disruption in the use of, or damage to, our information technology systems, it may adversely affect our business and income of the Company.

35. Our success largely depends upon the knowledge and experience of our Promoters, Directors, our Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management as well as our ability to attract and retain personnel with technical expertise. Any loss of our Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel, Senior Management or our inability to attract and retain them and other personnel with technical expertise could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our success largely depends upon the knowledge and experience of our Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management as well as our ability to attract and retain skilled personnel. Any loss of our Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management or our inability to attract and retain them and other skilled personnel could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. We depend on the management skills and guidance of our Promoters for development of business strategies, monitoring their successful implementation and meeting future challenges. Further, we also significantly depend on the expertise, experience and continued efforts of our Key Managerial Personnel and Senior Management. Our future performance will depend largely on our ability to retain the continued service of our management team. If one or more of our Key Managerial Personnel or Senior Management Personnel are unable or unwilling to continue in his or her present position, it could be difficult for us to find a suitable or timely replacement and our business, financial condition and results of operations could be adversely affected.

In addition, we may require a long period of time to hire and train replacement personnel when personnel with technical expertise terminate their employment with us. We may also be required to increase our levels of employee compensation more rapidly than in the past to remain competitive in attracting and retaining personnel with technical expertise that our business requires. The loss of the services of such persons could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition. We may also be required to increase our levels of employee compensation more rapidly than in the past to remain competitive in attracting and retaining personnel with requisite expertise that our business requires.

The following table sets forth attrition rate of our employees for the period indicated:

Attrition Rate	As on March 31, 2025*
Attrition Rate (%) ⁽¹⁾	20.58%
No. of employees who resigned during the period	7

*Kindly note that list of employees is provided as on March 31, 2025, hence, the attrition period is also taken as March 31, 2025.

The positions in which resignations have occurred as mentioned in the aforesaid table have been appropriately filled, and we do not see any foreseeable impact due to these resignations however, it may be difficult to attract and retain the personnel we require in the future in case of any such major position is left unfilled. There can be no assurance that our competitors will not offer better compensation packages, incentives and other perquisites to such skilled personnel. Further, as at the date of this Prospectus, we do not have key man insurance policies. In the event that we are not able to attract and retain talented employees as required for conducting our business, or if we experience high attrition levels in future which are largely out of our control, or if we are unable to motivate and retain existing employees, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected. See “Our Management” and “Our Business” on page 240 and 182 for further information.

36. Information relating to historical installed capacity of our processing included in this Prospectus is based on various assumptions and estimates and our future processing and capacity utilization may vary. Under-utilization of our processing capacity and an inability to effectively utilize our blending and processing facility may have an adverse effect on our business, future prospects and future financial performance.

Information relating to our historical installed capacity of our processing facilities included in this Prospectus is based on various assumptions and estimates of our management and independent chartered engineer, namely, SRJ Certification Services Private Limited, Chartered Engineer by their certificate dated April 23, 2025, including proposed operations, assumptions relating to availability and potential utilization levels and operational efficiencies. For further information regarding our processing facility, including our historical installed capacity, see “Our Business – Capacity and Capacity Utilization” on pages 214 of this Prospectus.

Actual and future processing volumes and capacity utilization rates may differ significantly from the estimated processing capacities of our facility. Undue reliance should therefore not be placed on the information relating to our installed capacities or historical capacity utilization of our processing facility included in this Prospectus. Further, there is no guarantee that our future processing or capacity utilization levels will match or exceed our historical levels. Our expected return on capital invested is subject to, among other factors, the ability to ensure satisfactory performance of personnel to further grow our business, our ability to absorb additional infrastructure costs and utilize the expanded capacities as anticipated. The product requirements of, and procurement practice followed by our customers also affect our capacity utilization. Our capacity is underutilised in the industry due to the lack of demand for which we may not be able to utilize our capacity efficiently. Our aggregate actual capacity utilization was 78.92% and 0.15% in the Fiscal 2025 and Fiscal 2024, since the machines were purchased for processing and blending in the year 2023, respectively for the products. Also, the grinding machine was added in 2024, hence there was a significant rise in capacity utilisation between Fiscal 2024 and 2025.

We also face the risk that our customers might not place any order or might place orders of lesser than expected size or may even cancel existing orders or make changes in their policies, which may result in reduced quantities being processed by us resulting in under-utilization from our existing processing capacity in near future also. However, our significant percentage of revenue is not generated from blending and processing capacity, however, we make significant decisions, including determining the levels of business that we will seek and accept, processing schedules, personnel requirements and other resource requirements, based on our estimates of customer orders which may contribute to our revenue from operations in future. The requirements of our customers are not restricted to one type of product i.e. whether they prefer traded goods or processed goods and therefore variations in demand for certain types of products also requires us to make certain changes in our blending and processing facility thereby affecting our business schedules. This may lead to mismatch of capacity and capacity utilization. Any such mismatch leading to over or under utilization of our processing facilities could adversely affect our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

37. We have certain contingent liabilities which have been disclosed in our Restated Consolidated Financial Information, which if they materialize, may adversely affect our results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

The following is a summary table of our contingent liabilities for last 3 fiscals as indicated in our Restated Financial Information.

(₹. in Lakhs)

Particulars	For the year ended March 31
	2025	2024	2023
Contingent liabilities in respect of:
Bank Guarantees given on behalf of the Company	17.85	-	-
Total	17.85	-	-

If a significant portion of these liabilities materialize, it could have an adverse effect on our business, cash flows, financial condition and results of operations. For further information on contingent liabilities for last 3 fiscals, see “Restated Financial Information – Notes forming part of the Restated Financial Information – Note 34” on page 288.

38. We are dependent on third-party transportation providers for the supply of products and delivery of our finished products, However, any such reductions or interruptions in the supply of the products could adversely affect our Business, Results of Operations and Financial Condition and may have an adverse effect on our ability to deliver our products in a timely or cost-effective manner.

Our facility is strategically located which in turn makes it possible for us to procure products in an effective and timely manner. We arrange transportation on lowest price and availability basis. However, despite being strategically located, our Company is dependent upon third party service providers for the transport of the products. As a trading business, our success depends on the uninterrupted supply and transportation of materials required for processing and trading. We may or may not undertake the responsibility of delivery of products to or from our Facility or to our customers. We rely on third-party logistic service providers and freight forwarders for the purpose of the same. Factors such as transportation strikes could adversely impact the supply of products and the delivery of our finished products. In the past three Fiscals, we have not experienced any material disruption in transportation services. Past increases in transportation costs have been negotiated with the relevant third party and benchmarked with market prices. However, any such reductions or interruptions in the supply of the products, we source from third parties, including abrupt increases in the transportation or fuel costs, inability on our part to find alternate sources for the procurement of such products and termination in arrangements with our local transport agencies, if any, could adversely affect our Business, Results of Operations and Financial Condition and may have an adverse effect on our ability to deliver our products in a timely or cost effective manner.

39. Our inability to accurately forecast demand or price for our products and manage our inventory may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our business depends on our estimate of the demand for our products from customers. As is typical in the specialty nutraceutical industry, we maintain a reasonable level of inventory. However, if we underestimate demand or have inadequate capacity due to which we are unable to meet the demand for our products, we may trade fewer quantities of products than required, which could result in the loss of business. While we forecast the demand and price for our products and accordingly, plan our operations, any error in our forecast could result in a reduction in our profit margins and surplus stock, which may result in additional storage cost and such surplus stock may not be sold in a timely manner, or at all. If we overestimate demand, we may incur costs to build capacity or purchase more products and trade more products than required. Our inability to accurately forecast demand for our products and manage our inventory may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our ability to maintain our operations is dependent on us providing our products at prices competitive with the local distributors. Further, a majority of our business involves having robust supply networks in place. To that extent, if any of our competitors is able to garner a better and more cost-efficient supply network, they may be able to provide their products at competitive prices as compared to us. Our inability to price our products at the applicable prices in the domestic markets, may affect the demand for our products and consequently have a material adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition.

40. Within the parameters as mentioned in the chapter titled “Objects of the Offer” beginning on page 99 of this Prospectus, our Company’s management will have flexibility in applying the proceeds of the Offer. The fund requirement and deployment mentioned in the Objects of this Offer have not been appraised by any bank or financial institution.

We intend to use the Net Proceeds for the purposes described in the section titled “Objects of the Offer” on page 99 of this Prospectus. The Objects of the Offer comprise of Financing the capital expenditure towards setting up of the Manufacturing Facility through investment in ERMPL, our Wholly-Owned Subsidiary (WOS); Repayment/prepayment of all or certain of our borrowings availed of by our Company and General corporate purposes.

We intend to deploy the Net Proceeds in financial year 2025-2026 and 2026-2027, such deployment is based on certain assumptions and strategy which our Company believes to implement in future. The funds raised from the Offer may remain idle on account of change in assumptions, market conditions, strategy of our Company, etc., For further details on the use of the Net Proceeds, please refer chapter titled “Objects of the Offer” beginning on page 99 of this Prospectus.

The deployment of funds for the purposes described above is at the discretion of our Company’s Board of Directors. The fund requirement and deployment are based on internal management estimates and has not been appraised by any bank or financial institution. Accordingly, within the parameters as mentioned in the chapter titled “Objects of the Offer” beginning on page 99 of this Prospectus, the Management will have significant flexibility in applying the proceeds received by our Company from the Offer. However, the deployment of the Offer Proceeds (excluding Offer for Sale) will be monitored by a monitoring agency to be appointed pursuant to the SEBI ICDR Regulations and amendments thereto. We may have to reconsider our estimates or business plans due to changes in underlying factors, some of which may be beyond our control, such as interest rate fluctuations, changes in input cost, and other financial and operational factors. Accordingly, prospective investors in the Offer will need to rely upon our management's judgment with respect to the use of Net Proceeds. If we are unable to deploy the Net Proceeds in a timely or an efficient manner, it may affect our business and the results of operations.

41. Portion of our Offer Proceeds are proposed to be utilized for general corporate purposes which constitute 0.49% of the Offer Proceed.

As on date we have not identified the use of such funds. Portion of our Offer Proceeds are proposed to be utilized for general corporate purposes which constitute 0.49% of the Offer Proceeds. We have not identified the general corporate purposes for which these funds may be utilized. The deployment of such funds is entirely at the discretion of our management subject to the applicable laws and in accordance with policies established by our Board of Directors from time to time and subject to compliance with the necessary provisions of the Companies Act. For details, please refer the chapter titled "Objects of the Offer" beginning on Page No. 99 of this Prospectus.

42. Our Promoters have provided personal guarantees for loan facilities obtained by our Company, and any failure or default by our Company to repay such loans in accordance with the terms and conditions of the financing documents could trigger repayment obligations on them, which may impact their ability to effectively service their obligations as our Promoters and thereby, impact our business and operations.

Our Promoters have extended personal guarantees towards loan facilities taken by our Company. Any default or failure by us to repay the loans in a timely manner, or at all could trigger repayment obligations of our guarantors in respect of such loans, which in turn, could have an impact on their ability to effectively service their obligations as Promoters of our Company, thereby having an effect on our business, results of operation and financial condition. Furthermore, in the event that these individuals withdraw or terminate their guarantees, our lenders for such facilities may ask for alternate guarantees, repayment of amounts outstanding under such facilities, or even terminate such facilities. We may not be successful in procuring guarantees satisfactory to the lenders, and as a result may need to repay outstanding amounts under such facilities or seek additional sources of capital, which could affect our financial condition and cash flows. For further details, please refer the chapter titled "Financial Indebtedness" beginning on page 300 of this Prospectus.

43. We may not be fully insured for all losses we may incur which could have a material adverse effect on our business, reputation, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

Although we attempt to limit and mitigate our liability for damages arising from negligent acts, errors or omissions through contractual provisions, limitations of liability set forth in our contracts may not be enforceable in all instances or may not otherwise protect us from liability for damages.

In addition, certain liabilities, such as claims of third parties for which we may be required to indemnify our customers, are generally not limited under those agreements. We face the risk of loss resulting from, and the adverse publicity associated with lawsuits, whether or not such claims are valid. We have taken various insurance policies, details of which is mentioned in the section titled, "Our Insurance Policies" under the chapter titled, "Our Business" on page 219 of the Prospectus. Although we believe we have adequate insurance coverage but that coverage may not continue to be available on reasonable terms or to be available in sufficient amounts to cover one or more large claims, and our insurers may disclaim coverage as to any future claim. Insurance coverage may be an inadequate remedy where the loss suffered is not easily quantifiable, for example, in the event of severe damage to our reputation. The successful assertion of one or more large claims against us that exceed available insurance coverage, or changes in our insurance policies (including premium increases or the imposition of large deductible or co-insurance requirements), could have a material adverse effect on our business, reputation, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows.

44. We may not be successful in implementing our business strategies, Failure to implement our business strategies would have a material adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

The success of our business depends substantially on our ability to implement our business strategies effectively. Even though we have successfully executed our business strategies in the past, there is no guarantee that we can implement the same on time and within the estimated budget going forward, or that we will be able to meet the expectations of our targeted customers. Changes in regulations applicable to us may also make it difficult to implement our business strategies. Failure to implement our business strategies would have a material adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

45. If we are unable to source business opportunities effectively, we may not achieve our financial objectives.

Our ability to achieve our financial objectives will depend on our ability to identify, evaluate and accomplish business opportunities. To grow our business, we will need to hire, train, supervise and manage new employees and to implement systems capable of effectively accommodating our growth. However, we cannot assure you that any such employees will contribute to the success of our business or that we will implement such systems effectively. Our failure to source business opportunities effectively could have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. It is also possible that the strategies used by us in the future may be different from those presently in use. No assurance can be given that our analyses of market and other data or the strategies we use or plans in future to use will be successful under various market conditions.

46. Our Company's ability to pay dividends in the future will depend on our Company's future results of operations, financial condition, cash flows and working capital and capital expenditure requirements

We may retain all our future earnings, if any, for use in the operations and expansion of our business. As a result, we may not declare dividends in the foreseeable future. Any future determination as to the declaration and payment of dividends will be at the discretion of our Board of Directors and will depend on factors that our Board of Directors deem relevant, including among others, our results of operations, financial condition, cash requirements, business prospects and any other financing arrangements. There can be no assurance that our Equity Shares will appreciate in value. For details of our dividend history, see "Dividend Policy" on page 264 of this Prospectus.

47. We have not commissioned an industry report for the disclosures made in the section titled 'Industry Overview' and made disclosures on the basis of the data available on the internet and such data has not been independently verified by us.

We have neither commissioned an industry report, nor sought consent from the quoted website source for the disclosures which need to be made in the section titled "Industry Overview" beginning on page 152 of this Prospectus. We have made disclosures in the said chapter on the basis of the relevant industry related data available online for which relevant consents have not been obtained. We have not independently verified such data. We cannot assure you that any assumptions made are correct or will not change and, accordingly, our position in the market may differ from that presented in this Prospectus. Further, the industry data mentioned in this Prospectus or sources from which the data has been collected are not recommendations to invest in our Company. Accordingly, investors should read the industry related disclosure in this Prospectus in this context.

48. We are exposed to counterparty credit risk and any delay in receiving payments or non-receipt of payments may adversely impact our results of operations.

We are subject to counterparty credit risk and a significant delay in receiving large payments or non-receipt of large payments may adversely impact our results of operations. Our operations involve extending credit to our customers in respect of sale of our products and consequently, we face the risk of the uncertainty regarding the receipt of these outstanding amounts. As a result of such industry conditions, we have and may continue to have high levels of outstanding receivables. There is no assurance that we will accurately assess the creditworthiness of our customers. Further, macroeconomic conditions which are beyond our control, such as a potential credit crisis in the global financial system, could also result in financial difficulties for our customers, including limited access to the credit markets, insolvency or bankruptcy. Such conditions could cause our customers to delay payment, request modifications of their payment terms, or default on their payment obligations to us, all of which could increase our receivables. Timely collection of dues from customers also depends on our ability to complete our contractual commitments and subsequently bill for and collect from our customers. While we have not faced such incidents in the past, if we are unable to meet our contractual obligations, we may experience delays in the collection of, or be unable to collect, our customer balances, which could adversely affect our results of operations and cash flows.

49. If we fail to maintain an effective system of internal controls, we may not be able to successfully manage, or accurately report, our financial risks. Despite our internal control systems, we may be exposed to operational risks, including fraud, petty theft and embezzlement, which may adversely affect our reputation, business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

Effective internal controls are necessary for us to prepare reliable financial reports and effectively avoid fraud. Moreover, any internal controls that we may implement, or our level of compliance with such controls, may deteriorate over time, due to evolving business conditions. We cannot assure you that deficiencies in our internal controls will not arise in the future, or that we will be able to implement, and continue to maintain, adequate measures to rectify or mitigate any such deficiencies in our internal controls. Any inability on our part to adequately detect, rectify or mitigate any such deficiencies in our internal controls may affect ability to accurately report, or successfully manage, our financial risks, and to avoid fraud, which may in turn adversely affect our business, financial condition or results of operations. Further, given the high volume of transactions we process on a daily basis, notwithstanding the internal controls that we have in place, we may be exposed to the risk of fraud or other misconduct by employees, contractors or customers. Fraud and other misconduct can be difficult to detect and deter. Certain instances of fraud and misconduct may go unnoticed or may only be discovered and successfully rectified after substantial delays. Even when we discover such instances of fraud or theft and pursue them to the full extent of the law or with our insurance carriers, there can be no assurance that we will recover any of the amounts involved in these cases. In addition, our dependence upon automated systems to record and process transactions may further increase the risk that technical system flaws or employee tampering or manipulation of those systems will result in losses that are difficult to detect, which may adversely affect our reputation, business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

50. We might infringe upon the intellectual property rights of others and may be susceptible to claims from third parties, affecting our operations and financial condition.

While we take care to ensure that we comply with the intellectual property rights of others, we cannot determine with certainty as to whether we are infringing on any existing third-party intellectual property rights, which may require us to alter our technologies, obtain licenses or cease some of our operations. We may also be susceptible to claims from third parties asserting infringement and other related claims. If such claims are raised, those claims could: (a) adversely affect our relationships with current or future customers; (b) result in costly litigation; (c) cause product shipment delays or stoppages; (d) divert management's attention and resources; (e) subject us to significant liabilities; (f) require us to enter into potentially expensive royalty or licensing agreements and (g) require us to cease certain activities. While in the last three financial years, we have not been involved in litigation or incurred litigation expenses in connection with third party intellectual property rights, in the case of an infringement claim made by a third party, we may be required to defend such claims at our own cost and liability and may need to indemnify and hold harmless our customers. Furthermore, necessary licenses may not be available to us on satisfactory terms, if at all. In addition, we may decide to settle a claim or action against us, to which settlement could be costly. We may also be liable for any past infringement that we are not aware of. Any of the foregoing could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

51. Failure to deal effectively with fraudulent activities on emails would increase our fraud losses and harm our business and could severely diminish seller and customer confidence in and use of our products.

We face risks with respect to fraudulent activities on our emails. Although we have implemented measures to detect and reduce the occurrence of fraudulent activities, scams, including encouraging reporting of concerns, gating and monitoring higher-risk activities, evaluating sellers on the basis of their transaction history and restricting or suspending some sellers, we cannot assure you that these measures will be effective in combating fraudulent transactions or improving overall satisfaction among sellers and customers. We will need to evolve to combat fraudulent activities as they develop. Any failure to evolve could result in loss of customer trust. At the same time, the implementation of additional measures to address fraud could negatively affect the attractiveness of our offerings to customers and sellers, or create friction in our customers' experience.

52. In addition to normal remuneration, other benefits and reimbursement of expenses, some of our directors (including our Promoters) are interested in our Company to the extent of their shareholding and dividend entitlement in our Company.

Some of our directors (including our Promoters) are interested in our Company to the extent of their shareholding in our Company, in addition to normal remuneration or benefits and reimbursement of expenses. We cannot assure you that our directors would always exercise their rights as shareholders to the benefit and best interest of our Company. For further information, see the chapters titled "Our Management" and "Our Promoters and Promoter Group" beginning on page 240 and 256 respectively of this Prospectus and the section titled "Restated Financial Information" beginning on page 265 of this Prospectus.

53. Our WOS and our Company have not made any alternate arrangements for meeting our capital requirements for the Objects of the Offer. Further Our WOS and our Company have not identified any alternate source of financing the Objects of the Offer. Any shortfall in raising / meeting the same could adversely affect our growth plans, business operations and financial condition.

As on date of this Prospectus, Our WOS and our Company have not made any alternate arrangements for meeting our capital requirements for objects of the offer. Our WOS Company have met the capital requirements through internal accruals and debt of our Company. Any shortfall in our net owned funds, internal accruals and our inability to raise debt in future for our WOS would result in us being unable to meet the capital requirements of our WOS, which in turn will negatively affect our financial condition and results of operations. Further we have not identified any alternate source of funding and hence any failure or delay on our part to raise money from this Offer or any shortfall in the Net Offer proceeds may delay the implementation schedule and could adversely affect our growth plans. For further details, please refer to the chapter titled "Objects of the Offer" beginning on page 99 of this Prospectus.

54. As we continue to grow, we may not be able to effectively manage our growth and the increased complexity of our business, which could negatively impact our brand and financial performance.

The success of our business will depend greatly on our ability to effectively implement our operational and growth strategies. As a part of our growth strategy, we aim to, among other things, continue to grow our businesses as and when opportunities exist including expansion in product base, focus on consistently meeting quality standards, deepen and expand our geographical presence, strengthening up our business through effective branding and promotional activities. In pursuing our growth strategy, we will require additional capital investments and cash outlays, which may have a material impact on our cash flows and results of operations. Our operating expenses and capital requirements may increase significantly pursuant to our expansion and diversification plans. Our ability to manage our growth effectively requires us to forecast accurately our sales and growth and to expend funds to improve our operational, financial and management controls, reporting systems and procedures. An inability to implement our future business plan, manage our growth effectively or failure to secure the required funding on favourable terms or at all could have a material and adverse effect on our business, future financial performance and results of operations.

55. Our Company will not receive any proceeds from the Offer for Sale. Our Promoter Selling Shareholders will receive the proceeds from the Offer for Sale.

The Offer comprises of a Fresh Issue and an Offer for Sale by the Promoter Selling Shareholders. Our Promoter Selling Shareholders shall be entitled to the entire proceeds from the Offer for Sale (net of their portion of the Offer related expenses) and we will not receive any proceeds from the Offer for Sale. For further information, see “The Offer” and “Objects of the Offer” on pages 71 and 99, respectively.

56. Our inability to manage growth could disrupt our business and reduce our profitability.

A principal component of our strategy is to continue to grow by expanding the size and geographical scope of our businesses, as well as the development of our new business streams. This growth strategy will place significant demands on our management, financial and other resources. It will require us to continuously develop and improve our operational, financial and internal controls. Continuous expansion increases the challenges involved in financial management, recruitment, training and retaining high quality human resources, preserving our culture, values and entrepreneurial environment and developing and improving our internal administrative infrastructure. Any inability on our part to manage such growth could disrupt our business prospects, impact our financial condition and adversely affect our results of operations.

57. Significant differences exist between Indian GAAP and other accounting principles, such as US GAAP and IFRS, which may be material to investors assessments of Our Company's financial condition. Our failure to successfully adopt IFRS may have an adverse effect on the price of our Equity Shares. The proposed adoption of IFRS could result in our financial condition and results of operations appearing materially different than under Indian GAAP.

Our restated consolidated financial statements, including the financial statements provided in this Prospectus, are prepared in accordance with Indian GAAP. We have not attempted to quantify the impact of IFRS or U.S. GAAP on the financial data included in this Prospectus, nor do we provide a reconciliation of our financial statements to those of U.S. GAAP or IFRS. U.S. GAAP and IFRS differ in significant respects from Indian GAAP. For details, refer chapter titled “Presentation of Financial Industry and Market Data” beginning on Page 18 of this Prospectus.

Accordingly, the degree to which the Indian GAAP financial statements included in this Prospectus will provide meaningful information is entirely dependent on the reader's level of familiarity with Indian accounting practices. Any reliance by persons not familiar with Indian accounting practices on the financial disclosures presented in this Prospectus should accordingly be limited. India has decided to adopt the “Convergence of its existing standards with IFRS” and not the “International Financial Reporting Standards” (“IFRS”), which was announced by the MCA, through the press note dated January 22, 2010. These “IFRS based / synchronized Accounting Standards” are referred to in India as IND (AS). Public companies in India, including our Company, may be required to prepare annual and interim financial statements under IND (AS). The MCA, through a press release dated February 25, 2011, announced that it will implement the converged accounting standards in a phased manner after various issues, including tax related issues, are resolved. Further, MCA Notification dated February 16, 2015, has provided an exemption to the Companies proposing to list their shares on the SME Exchange as per Chapter IX of the SEBI ICDR Regulations and hence the adoption of IND (AS) by a SME exchange listed Company is voluntary. Accordingly, we have made no attempt to quantify or identify the impact of the differences between Indian GAAP and IFRS or to quantify the impact of the difference between Indian GAAP and IFRS as applied to its financial statements. There can be no assurance that the adoption of IND-AS will not affect our reported results of operations or financial condition. Any failure to successfully adopt IND-AS may have an adverse effect on the trading price of our Equity Shares. Currently, it is not possible to quantify whether our financial results will vary significantly due to the convergence to IND

(AS), given that the accounting principles laid down in the IND (AS) are to be applied to transactions and balances carried in books of accounts as on the date of the applicability of the converged standards, i.e., IND (AS) and for future periods.

Moreover, if we volunteer for transition to IND (AS) reporting, the same may be hampered by increasing competition and increased costs for the relatively small number of IND (AS)-experienced accounting personnel available as more Indian companies begin to prepare IND (AS) financial statements. Any of these factors relating to the use of converged Indian Accounting Standards may adversely affect our financial condition.

EXTERNAL RISKS

58. Changing regulations in India could lead to new compliance requirements that are uncertain. The regulatory environment in which we operate is evolving and is subject to change.

The regulatory and policy environment in which we operate is evolving and is subject to change. The GoI may implement new laws or other regulations and policies that could affect our business in general, which could lead to new compliance requirements, including requiring us to obtain approvals and licenses from the Government and other regulatory bodies, or impose onerous requirements. The regulatory and policy environment in which we operate is evolving and is subject to change. The GoI may implement new laws or other regulations and policies that could affect our business in general, which could lead to new compliance requirements, including requiring us to obtain approvals and licenses from the Government and other regulatory bodies, or impose onerous requirements.

Additionally, SEBI has issued a notification in the official Gazette vide notification no. SEBI/LAD-NRO/GN/2025/233 dated March 03, 2025 and has amended various regulations of SEBI (Issue of Capital and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2018 and has introduced SEBI (Issue of Capital and Disclosure Requirements) (Amendment), Regulations, 2025, which also includes the amendments pertaining to the SME IPO's for the Company's getting listed over SME platforms of the stock exchanges which includes, the amendments made in the categories of allocation in case of Book Built Issue and restrictions on the Offer for Sale and such other amendments. We cannot predict whether the amendments made pursuant to the SEBI (Issue of Capital and Disclosure Requirements) (Amendment), Regulations, 2025 would have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition. Unfavourable changes in or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new laws, rules and regulations governing our business and operations could result in us being deemed to be in contravention of such laws and may require us to apply for additional approvals.

Further, the Government of India has introduced (a) the Code on Wages, 2019; (b) the Code on Social Security, 2020; (c) the Occupational Safety, Health and Working Conditions Code, 2020; and (d) the Industrial Relations Code, 2020 which consolidate, subsume and replace numerous existing central labour legislations. While the rules for implementation under these codes have not been notified, the implementation of such laws could increase our employee and labour costs, thereby adversely impacting our results of operations, cash flows, business and financial performance.

The application of various Indian tax laws, rules and regulations to our business, currently or in the future, is subject to interpretation by the applicable taxation authorities. For instance, companies can voluntarily opt in favour of a concessional tax regime (subject to no other special benefits/exemptions being claimed), which reduces the rate of income tax payable to 22% subject to compliance with conditions prescribed, from the erstwhile 25% or 30% depending upon the total turnover or gross receipt in the relevant period. Any such future amendments may affect our other benefits such as exemption for income earned by way of dividend from investments in other domestic companies and units of mutual funds, exemption for interest received in respect of tax-free bonds, and long-term capital gains on equity shares if withdrawn by the statute in the future, and the same may no longer be available to us. Any adverse order passed by the appellate authorities/ tribunals/ courts would have an effect on our profitability.

Further, the GoI has announced the union budget for Fiscal 2024, pursuant to which the Finance Bill, 2024 ("Finance Bill"), has introduced various amendments. The Finance Bill has received assent from the President of India on February 15, 2024, and has been enacted as the Finance Act, 2024. We cannot predict whether any amendments made pursuant to the Finance Act, 2024 would have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations. Furthermore, changes in capital gains tax or tax on capital market transactions or the sale of shares could affect investor returns. As a result, any such changes or interpretations could have an adverse effect on our business and financial performance.

Further, The Government of India announced the Union Budget for Fiscal 2025, pursuant to which the Finance Bill 2025 proposes various amendments. Further, the Income Tax Act, 1961 is proposed to be amended. We cannot predict whether the amendments proposed to be made pursuant to the Finance Act, 2025 or the Income Tax Act, 1961 would have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, future cash flows and results of operations. Unfavourable changes in or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new, laws, rules and regulations including foreign investment and stamp duty laws governing our business and operations could result in us being deemed to be in contravention of such laws and may require us to apply for additional approvals.

Uncertainty in the applicability, interpretation or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation or policy in the jurisdictions in which we operate, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may impact the viability of our current business or restrict our ability to grow our business in the future. We may incur increased costs and other burdens relating to compliance with such new requirements, which may also require significant management time and other resources, and any failure to comply may adversely affect our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

59. Political instability or a change in economic liberalization and deregulation policies could seriously harm business and economic conditions in India generally and our business in particular.

The Government of India has traditionally exercised and continues to exercise influence over many aspects of the economy. Our business and the market price and liquidity of our Equity Shares may be affected by interest rates, changes in Government policy, taxation, social and civil unrest and other political, economic or other developments in or affecting India. The rate of economic liberalization could change, and specific laws and policies affecting the information technology sector, foreign investment and other matters affecting investment in our securities could change as well. Any significant change in such liberalization and deregulation policies could adversely affect business and economic conditions in India, generally, and our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations, in particular.

60. The determination of the Price Band is based on various factors and assumptions and the Offer Price of the Equity Shares may not be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares upon listing on the Stock Exchange.

The determination of the Price Band is based on various factors and assumptions, and will be determined by our Company and the Selling Shareholders in consultation with the Book Running Lead Manager. Furthermore, the Offer Price of the Equity Shares will be determined by our Company and the Selling Shareholders in consultation with the Book Running Lead Manager through the Book Building Process. These will be based on numerous factors, including those described under “Basis for Offer Price” on page 142 of this Prospectus, and may not be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares upon listing on the Stock Exchange. The price of our Equity Shares upon listing on the Stock Exchange will be determined by the market and may be influenced by many factors outside of our control.

61. An investment in the Equity Shares is subject to general risk related to investments in Indian Companies.

Our Company is incorporated in India and all of our assets and employees are located in India. Consequently, our business, results of operations, financial condition and the market price of the Equity Shares will be affected by changes in interest rates in India, policies of the Government of India, including taxation policies along with policies relating to industry, political, social and economic developments affecting India.

62. The Equity Shares have never been publicly traded, and, after the Offer, the Equity Shares may experience price and volume fluctuations, and an active trading market for the Equity Shares may not develop. Further, the price of the Equity Shares may be volatile, and you may be unable to resell the Equity Shares at or above the Offer Price, or at all.

Prior to the Offer, there has been no public market for the Equity Shares, and an active trading market on the Stock Exchanges may not develop or be sustained after the Offer. Listing and quotation do not guarantee that a market for the Equity Shares will develop, or if developed, the liquidity of such market for the Equity Shares. The Offer Price of the Equity Shares is proposed to be determined through a Book Building Process in accordance with the SEBI ICDR Regulations and amendments thereto and may not be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares at the time of commencement of trading of the Equity Shares or at any time thereafter. The market price of the Equity Shares may be subject to significant fluctuations in response to, among other factors, variations in our operating results of our Company, market conditions specific to the industry we operate in, developments relating to India, volatility in securities markets in jurisdictions other than India, variations in the growth rate of financial indicators, variations in revenue or earnings estimates by research publications, and changes in economic, legal and other regulatory factors.

63. There is no guarantee that the Equity Shares issued pursuant to the Offer will be listed on the BSE SME Platform in a timely manner or at all.

In accordance with Indian law and practice, permission for listing and trading of the Equity Shares issued pursuant to the Offer will not be granted until after the Equity Shares have been issued and allotted. Approval for listing and trading will require all relevant documents authorizing the issuing of Equity Shares to be submitted. There could be a failure or delay in listing the Equity Shares on the BSE SME. Any failure or delay in obtaining the approval would restrict your ability to dispose of your Equity Shares.

64. Any future issuance of Equity Shares may dilute your shareholding and sale of our Equity Shares by our Promoters or other shareholders may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Any future equity issuances by us, including in a primary offering, may lead to the dilution of investors' shareholdings in our Company. Any future equity issuances by us or sales of our Equity Shares by our Promoters or other major shareholders may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares. In addition, any perception by investors that such issuances or sales might occur could also affect the trading price of our Equity Shares.

65. There are restrictions on the overall capping of 90% on the Opening Price/Equilibrium Price discovered during Special Pre-Open session for Initial Public Offer (IPO) on the BSE SME Platform of the Exchange and also there are restrictions on daily movements in the trading price of the Equity Shares, which may adversely affect a shareholder's ability to sell Equity Shares or the price at which Equity Shares can be sold at a particular point in time.

Once listed, we would be subject to circuit breakers imposed by the stock exchange, which does not allow transactions beyond specified increases or decreases in the price of the Equity Shares. This circuit breaker operates independently of the index-based market-wide circuit breakers generally imposed by SEBI. The percentage limit on circuit breakers is said by the stock exchange based on the historical volatility in the price and trading volume of the Equity Shares. The stock exchange does not inform us of the percentage limit of the circuit breaker in effect from time to time, and may change it without our knowledge. This circuit breaker limits the upward and downward movements in the price of the Equity Shares. As a result of the circuit breaker, no assurance may be given regarding your ability to sell your Equity Shares or the price at which you may be able to sell your Equity Shares at any time

66. You may be subject to Indian taxes arising out of capital gains on the sale of the Equity Shares.

Under current Indian tax laws, unless specifically exempted, capital gains arising from the sale of equity shares in an Indian company is generally taxable in India. A securities transaction tax ("STT") is levied on and collected by an Indian stock exchange on which equity shares are sold. Any gain realized on the sale of listed equity shares held for more than 12 months may be subject to long-term capital gains tax in India at the specified rates depending on certain factors, such as STT paid, the quantum of gains and any available treaty exemptions. Accordingly, you may be subject to payment of long-term capital gains tax in India, in addition to payment of STT, on the sale of any Equity Shares held for more than 12 months. STT will be levied on and collected by a domestic stock exchange on which the Equity Shares are sold. Further, any gain realized on the sale of our Equity Shares held for a period of 12 months or less will be subject to short-term capital gains tax in India. While non-residents may claim tax treaty benefits in relation to such capital gains income, generally, Indian tax treaties do not limit India's right to impose tax on capital gains arising from the sale of shares of an Indian company.

In terms of the Finance Act, 2024, with effect from July 23, 2024, taxes payable by an assessee on the capital gains arising from transfer of long-term capital assets (introduced as Section 112A of the Income-Tax Act, 1961) shall be calculated on such long-term capital gains at the rate of 12.50%, where the long-term capital gains exceed ₹125,000, subject to certain exceptions in case of resident individuals and Hindu Undivided Families. The stamp duty for transfer of certain securities, other than debentures, on a delivery basis is currently specified at 0.015% and on a non-delivery basis is specified at 0.003% of the consideration amount.

The Government of India announced the Union Budget for Fiscal 2025, pursuant to which the Finance Bill 2025 proposes various amendments. Further, the Income Tax Act, 1961 is proposed to be amended. We cannot predict whether the amendments proposed to be made pursuant to the Finance Act, 2025 or the Income Tax Act, 1961 would have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition, future cash flows and results of operations. Unfavourable changes in or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new, laws, rules and regulations including foreign investment and stamp duty laws governing our business and operations could result in us being deemed to be in contravention of such laws and may require us to apply for additional approvals.

67. The price of our Equity Shares may be volatile, or an active trading market for our Equity Shares may not develop.

Prior to this Offer, there has been no public market for our Equity Shares. Our Company and the Book Running Lead Manager have appointed Market Maker for the equity shares of our Company. However, the trading price of our Equity Shares may fluctuate after this Offer due to a variety of factors, including our results of operations and the performance of our business, competitive conditions, general economic, political and social factors, the performance of the Indian and global economy and significant developments in India's fiscal regime, volatility in the Indian and global securities market, performance of our competitors, the Indian Capital Markets and Finance industry, changes in the estimates of our performance or recommendations by financial analysts and announcements by us or others regarding contracts, acquisitions, strategic partnership, joint ventures, or capital commitments.

68. Foreign investors are subject to foreign investment restrictions under Indian law that limits our ability to attract foreign investors, which may adversely impact the market price of the Equity Shares.

Under the exchange control regulations currently in force in India, transfers of shares between non-residents and residents are freely permitted (subject to certain restrictions) if they comply with the pricing guidelines and reporting requirements specified by the Reserve Bank of India. If the transfer of shares is not in compliance with such pricing guidelines or reporting requirements or falls under any of the exceptions referred to above, then the approval of the Reserve Bank of India will be required for such transaction to be valid.

Additionally, shareholders who seek to convert Rupee proceeds from a sale of shares in India into foreign currency and repatriate that foreign currency from India require a no-objection or a tax clearance certificate from the Indian income tax authorities. Further, in accordance with Press Note No. 3 (2020 Series), dated April 17, 2020 issued by the Department for Promotion of Industry and Internal Trade, Ministry of Commerce and Industry, Government of India (formerly known as Department of Industrial Policy and Promotion) and the Foreign Exchange Management (Non-debt Instruments) Amendment Rules, 2020 which came into effect from April 22, 2020, any investment, subscription, purchase or sale of equity instruments by entities of a country which shares a land border with India or where the beneficial owner of an investment into India is situated in or is a citizen of any such country, will require prior approval of the Government of India, as prescribed in the Consolidated FDI Policy and the FEMA Rules. These investment restrictions shall also apply to subscribers of offshore derivative instruments. Neither the Consolidated FDI Policy nor the FEMA Rules provide a definition of the term “beneficial owner”. The interpretation of “beneficial owner” and enforcement of this regulatory change may differ in practice, which may have an adverse effect on our ability to raise foreign capital. We cannot assure you that any required approval from the Reserve Bank of India or any other governmental agency can be obtained on any particular terms or at all.

69. Natural calamities, climate change and health epidemics could adversely affect the Indian economy and our business, financial condition, and results of operations. In addition, hostilities, terrorist attacks, civil unrest and other acts of violence could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

Our operations including our offices may be damaged or disrupted as a result of natural calamities. Such events may lead to the disruption of information systems and telecommunication services for sustained periods. They also may make it difficult or impossible for employees to reach our business locations. Damage or destruction that interrupts our provision of services could adversely affect our reputation, our relationships with our customers, our management team’s ability to administer and supervise our business or it may cause us to incur substantial additional expenditure to repair or replace damaged equipment or rebuild parts of our offices. Any of the above factors may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. India has from time-to-time experienced instances of social, religious and civil unrest and hostilities between neighbouring countries. Military activity or terrorist attacks in the future could influence the Indian economy by disrupting communications and making travel more difficult and such political tensions could create a greater perception that investments in Indian companies involve higher degrees of risk. Events of this nature in the future, as well as social and civil unrest within other countries in Asia, could influence the Indian economy and could have a material adverse effect on the market for securities of Indian companies.

70. Terrorist attacks, civil unrests and other acts of violence or war involving India or other countries could adversely affect the financial markets, our business, financial condition and the price of our Equity Shares.

Any major hostilities involving India or other acts of violence, including civil unrest or similar events that are beyond our control, could have a material adverse effect on India’s economy and our business. Incidents such as the terrorist attacks, other incidents such as those in US, Indonesia, Madrid and London, and other acts of violence may adversely affect the Indian stock markets where our Equity Shares will trade as well the global equity markets generally. Such acts could negatively impact business sentiment as well as trade between countries, which could adversely affect our Company’s business and profitability. Additionally, such events could have a material adverse effect on the market for securities of Indian companies, including the Equity Shares.

71. The outbreak of the novel coronavirus could have a significant effect on our results of operations, and could negatively impact our business, revenues, financial condition and results of operations.

An outbreak of COVID-19 was recognized as a pandemic by the WHO on March 11, 2020. In response to the COVID-19 outbreak, the governments of many countries, including India, have taken preventive or protective actions such as imposing country-wide lockdowns, as well as restrictions on travel and business operations. Since May 2020 many of these measures our operations and to build confidence in the safety protocols deployed at our office. If we do not respond appropriately to the pandemic, or if customers do not perceive our response to be adequate, we could suffer damage to our reputation and our brand, which could adversely affect our business in the future. Further, the lockdown was again imposed by the government in some parts of India during April 2021, which was partially relaxed in June 2021, during this lockdown although we have continued with our business, the execution of our business operations was delayed by few weeks. We cannot predict the degree to, or the time period over, which our business will be affected by the COVID-19 outbreak. For example, this pandemic could necessitate further lockdowns, resulting in significant additional effects on our revenue, financial condition and results of operations. There are numerous uncertainties associated with the COVID-19 outbreak, including the number of individuals who will become infected, availability of a vaccine or a cure that mitigates the effect of the virus, the extent of the protective and preventative measures imposed by governments and whether the virus' impact will be seasonal, among others. Consequently, there may be adverse effects of this pandemic on our short-term business operations and our financial results may be impacted.

72. Our business is substantially affected by prevailing economic, political and other conditions.

We are incorporated in and substantially all our operations are located in India. As a result, we are highly dependent on prevailing economic conditions in India and our results of operations and cash flows are significantly affected by factors influencing the Indian economy. Factors that may adversely affect the Indian economy, and hence our results of operations and cash flows, may include:

- a) any increase in Indian interest rates or inflation;
- b) any exchange rate fluctuations;
- c) any scarcity of credit or other financing in India, resulting in an adverse impact on economic conditions in India and scarcity of financing for our expansions;
- d) prevailing income conditions among Indian consumers and Indian corporates;
- e) volatility in, and actual or perceived trends in trading activity on India's principal stock exchanges;
- f) changes in India's tax, trade, fiscal or monetary policies;
- g) political instability, terrorism or military conflict in India or in countries in the region or globally, including in India's various neighbouring countries;
- h) occurrence of natural or man-made disasters;
- i) prevailing regional or global economic conditions, including in India's principal export markets;
- j) any downgrading of India's debt rating by a domestic or international rating agency;
- k) financial instability in financial markets; and
- l) other significant regulatory or economic developments in or affecting India or its construction sector.

On February 24, 2022, Russian military forces invaded Ukraine. Although the length, impact and outcome of the ongoing military conflict in Ukraine is highly unpredictable, this conflict and responses from international communities could lead to significant market and other disruptions, including significant volatility in commodity prices and supply of energy resources, instability in financial markets, supply chain interruptions, political and social instability, changes in consumer or purchaser preferences as well as increase in cyberattacks and espionage.

To date, we have not experienced any material interruptions in our supply chain, manufacturing facility and distribution network in connection with these conflicts. We have no way to predict the progress or outcome of the conflict in Ukraine as the conflict, and any resulting government reactions, are rapidly developing and beyond our control. The extent and duration of the military action, sanctions and resulting market disruptions could be significant and could potentially have a substantial impact on the global economy and our business for an unknown period of time. Any of the abovementioned factors could affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

In addition, any slowdown or perceived slowdown in the Indian economy, or in specific sectors of the Indian economy, could adversely affect our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition and the price of the Equity Shares.

73. Any downgrading of India's sovereign rating by an independent agency may harm our ability to raise financing.

Any adverse revisions to India's credit ratings for domestic and international debt by international rating agencies may adversely impact our ability to raise additional financing, and the interest rates and other commercial terms at which such additional financing may be available. This could have an adverse effect on our business and future financial performance, our ability to obtain financing for capital expenditures and the trading price of our Equity Shares.

74. The ability of Indian companies to raise foreign capital may be constrained by Indian law.

As an Indian Company, we are subject to exchange controls that regulate borrowing in foreign currencies, including those specified under FEMA. Such regulatory restrictions limit our financing sources for our projects under development and hence could constrain our ability to obtain financing on competitive terms and refinance existing indebtedness. In addition, we cannot assure you that the required approvals will be granted to us without onerous conditions, or at all. Limitations on foreign debt may adversely affect our business growth, results of operations and financial condition.

75. A third-party could be prevented from acquiring control of us post this Offer, because of anti-takeover provisions under Indian Law.

As a listed Indian entity, there are provisions in Indian law that may delay, deter or prevent a future takeover or change in control of our Company. Under the SEBI SAST Regulations, an acquirer has been defined as any person who, directly or indirectly, acquires or agrees to acquire shares or voting rights or control over a company, whether individually or acting in concert with others. Although these provisions have been formulated to ensure that interests of investors/shareholders are protected, these provisions may also discourage a third party from attempting to take control of our Company subsequent to completion of the Offer. Consequently, even if a potential takeover of our Company would result in the purchase of the Equity Shares at a premium to their market price or would otherwise be beneficial to our shareholders, such a takeover may not be attempted or consummated because of SEBI SAST Regulations.

76. Our Equity Shares have never been publicly traded, and, after the Offer, the Equity Shares may experience price and volume fluctuations, and an active trading market for the Equity Shares may not develop. Further, the price of the Equity Shares may be volatile, and you may be unable to resell the Equity Shares at or above the Offer Price, or at all.

Prior to the Offer, there has been no public market for our Equity Shares, and an active trading market may not develop or be sustained after the Offer. Listing and quotation do not guarantee that a market for our Equity Shares will develop or, if developed, does not guarantee the liquidity of such market for the Equity Shares. Our Company and the Book Running Lead Manager will appoint Market Maker for the equity shares of our Company. However, the trading price of our Equity Shares may fluctuate after this Offer due to a variety of factors, including our results of operations and the performance of our business, competitive conditions, general economic, political and social factors, the performance of the Indian and global economy and significant developments in India's fiscal regime, volatility in the Indian and global securities market, performance of our competitors, the Indian Capital Markets and Finance industry, changes in the estimates of our performance or recommendations by financial analysts and announcements by us or others regarding contracts, acquisitions, strategic partnership, joint ventures, or capital commitments. Investors might not be able to rapidly sell the Equity Shares at the quoted price if there is no active trading in the Equity Shares. The Offer Price of the Equity Shares has been determined by our Company and Selling shareholders in consultation with the BRLM through the Book Building Process.

77. Financial instability in other countries may cause increased volatility in Indian financial markets.

The Indian financial market and the Indian economy are influenced by economic and market conditions in other countries, particularly in emerging market in Asian countries. Financial turmoil in Asia, Europe, the United States and elsewhere in the world in recent years has affected the Indian economy. Although economic conditions are different in each country, investors' reactions to developments in one country can have an adverse effect on the securities of companies in other countries, including India. A loss in investor confidence in the financial systems of other emerging markets may cause increased volatility in Indian financial markets and, indirectly, in the Indian economy in general. Any global financial instability, including further deterioration of credit conditions in the U.S. market, could also have a negative impact on the Indian economy. Financial disruptions may occur again and could harm our results of operations and financial condition.

The Indian economy is also influenced by economic and market conditions in other countries. This includes, but is not limited to, the conditions in the United States, Europe and certain economies in Asia. Financial turmoil in Asia and elsewhere in the world in recent years has affected the Indian economy. Any worldwide financial instability may cause increased volatility in the Indian financial markets and, directly or indirectly, adversely affect the Indian economy and financial sector and its business.

Although economic conditions vary across markets, loss of investor confidence in one emerging economy may cause increased volatility across other economies, including India. Financial instability in other parts of the world could have a global influence and thereby impact the Indian economy. Financial disruptions in the future could adversely affect our business, prospects, financial condition and results of operations. The global credit and equity markets have in the past experienced substantial dislocations, liquidity disruptions and market corrections.

78. QIBs and Non-Institutional Investors are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid Amount) at any stage after submitting a Bid, and Individual Investors are not permitted to withdraw their Bids after Bid/ Offer Closing Date.

Pursuant to the SEBI ICDR Regulations and amendments thereto, Qualified Institutional Buyers and Non-Institutional Investors are required to pay the Bid Amount on submission of the Bid and are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid Amount) at any stage after submitting a Bid. Similarly, Individual Investors can revise or withdraw their Bids at any time during the Bid/ Offer Period and until the Bid/ Offer Closing Date, but not thereafter. Therefore, Qualified Institutional Buyers and Non-Institutional Investors will not be able to withdraw or lower their Bids following adverse developments in international or national monetary policy, financial, political or economic conditions, our business, results of operations or otherwise at any stage after the submission of their Bids.

ERMPL intends to do the following construction activities on the project land:

The manufacturing site is set for comprehensive development to establish a facility adhering to global standards for production and trading. The proposed facility will feature a Ground+3 floors structure with the following layout:

Ground Floor: Includes an administrative reception area, changing rooms for the manufacturing zone and a packaging hall.

First Floor: The first floor is dedicated to processing operations, including dispensing, milling, sifting, blending, and housing an Air Handling Unit (AHU) technical area. Due to space constraints on the first floor after allocating area for processing activities, the AHUs for the critical powder processing zone are positioned here, while additional AHUs are placed on the third floor. This ensures optimal airflow and compliance with cleanroom requirements for critical operations.

Second Floor: The second floor is reserved for future expansion, specifically for the manufacturing of Effervescence Tablets, Liposomal Ingredients, and Microencapsulated Ingredients. This floor is designed to accommodate additional processing activities as the facility scales up its production capabilities.

Third Floor: The third floor is designed to house administrative offices, a Quality Control (QC) laboratory, an AHU technical area, and additional processing zones for future expansion. The placement of AHUs on this floor complements the first-floor setup, ensuring efficient air handling and cleanroom compliance across the facility.

The manufacturing building will be constructed using reinforced cement concrete (RCC), with internal partitions made of cleanroom-compliant materials to effectively segregate the operational areas. The dedicated Heating, Ventilation and Air Conditioning System (HVAC) will serve specific zones to maintain environmental control and minimize cross-contamination risks. The warehouse area, in contrast, will be constructed using a Pre-Engineered Building (PEB) structure. A specialized ventilation system will be installed to ensure optimal conditions for Raw Materials and Finished Goods storage.

The actual mode of such deployment has not been finalized as on the date of this Prospectus. ERMPL does not have any stated dividend policy and our Company cannot be assured of any dividends from such investment. Our Company will remain interested in ERMPL to the extent of maintaining its existence as our wholly-owned Subsidiary. ERMPL in furtherance of the above-stated object will enable us to compete effectively, have better control in manufacturing and costs, increase our visibility and expand our existing customer base.

Our WOS through the Project Report dated July 04, 2025 obtained from the Chartered Engineer has taken the quotations and cost estimates from suppliers for undertaking civil construction works and procurement of equipment for the proposed manufacturing unit. However, our WOS is yet to place any orders or enter into definitive agreements or any memorandum of understanding for the implementation of manufacturing unit and purchase of plant and machinery, See, “Risk Factor – Our Company or our WOS company have not yet placed orders in relation to Financing the capital expenditure towards setting up of the Manufacturing Facility for investment in Easy Raw Materials Private Limited (ERMPL). In the event of any delay in placing the orders, or in the event the vendors are not able to complete the civil construction in a timely manner, or at all, may result in time and cost over-runs and our business, prospects and results of operations may be adversely affected. Our WOS company’s proposed capacity set-up plans are subject to the risk of unanticipated delays in implementation due to factors including delays in construction, obtaining regulatory approvals in timely manner and cost overruns.” Under the “Risk Factors” Chapter on page 31. Further, no second-hand or used machinery is proposed to be purchased out of the Net Proceeds. Each of the plants and machinery mentioned above is proposed to be acquired in a ready-to-use condition.

Our Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and members of Senior Management do not have any interest in the above mentioned project except to the extent of the shareholding and directorship of two of Promoters, Directors and one of the Key Managerial Personnel, Mr. Ankit Shailesh Mehta and Ms. Parul Shailesh Mehta. Also our Promoters, Directors, Key Managerial Personnel and members of Senior Management do not have any interest in the entities from whom WOS has obtained quotations in relation to such activities. Our Company or WOS may in the ordinary course of business enter into separate arrangements with the third-party vendors for the above-mentioned project at the proposed Manufacturing Facility. However, as on date of this Prospectus, there are no such arrangements and there is no assurance that we or our WOS will be able to enter into such arrangements with such third-party vendors. It is undertaken that any such arrangements, if entered into, shall be entered into by our Company and WOS on an arms’ length basis.

The rationale behind raising funds for investment in our wholly owned subsidiary, Easy Raw Materials Private Limited (ERMPL), instead of undertaking manufacturing directly under Chemkart India Limited (CIL) is as follows:

ERMPL was incorporated in 2020 with a specific objective to establish a dedicated manufacturing unit for nutraceutical products. The Company was non-operational during FY 2022, FY 2023, and FY 2024 as it was engaged in identifying a strategically viable and regulation-compliant location for setting up the plant and thus company was loss making in those years.

Subsequently, ERMPL successfully participated in a public tender issued by Jawaharlal Nehru Port Authority (JNPA) on 23rd August 2022, and was allotted land through issuance of the first Letter of Allotment (LOA) on 26th May 2023. A formal lease deed was executed on 28th September 2023, and ERMPL has since been actively progressing with compliance and infrastructural formalities required to commence operations. These include obtaining the Provisional Fire NOC and submitting the detailed project report to JNPA for approval. Accordingly, ERMPL remained non-operational purely due to the time-bound regulatory and infrastructural processes required for greenfield setup.

The decision to undertake manufacturing through ERMPL—set up in a Special Economic Zone (SEZ)—is driven by the strategic and financial advantages offered under the SEZ framework, including:

- Income tax exemptions on export profits
- Exemption from customs duties on imported capital goods and raw materials
- Operational benefits related to infrastructure, logistics, and single-window clearance mechanisms

At the same time, SEZ units are subject to certain restrictions for domestic sales and trading, which could potentially limit flexibility if manufacturing were carried out directly by our company. To retain operational agility in domestic trading and distribution while availing SEZ benefits for exports, the Company strategically decided to separate its trading and manufacturing activities by operating the SEZ-based manufacturing unit through its wholly owned subsidiary, ERMPL.

This structure enables the Group to optimize both domestic and export operations while ensuring regulatory compliance and financial efficiency.

a) Timelines

Engineering Timeline

Phase/Task	Time Estimate
Concept Engineering	8-10 weeks
Basic Engineering	18-20 weeks
Detailed Engineering	16-18 weeks

Note: In Concept Engineering, the product range, production capacity, Equipment Location, and space requirements, along with a rough cost estimate is determined. In Basic Engineering, plant layouts are created, define utility requirements, identify necessary machines, and refine the budget. In Detailed Engineering, finalization of the plant design, specify equipment and process flow, ensure compliance with regulations, and planning for procurement is done.

In view of the individual nature of the tax consequences and the changing tax laws, each investor is advised to consult his or her own tax consultant with respect to the specific tax implications arising out of their participation in the proposed initial public offering of Equity shares ("the Issue") by the Company.

We do not express any opinion or provide any assurance as to whether:

- a) The Company or its shareholders will continue to obtain these benefits in future; or
- b) The conditions prescribed for availing the benefits have been/would be met.

The contents of the enclosed statement are based on information, explanations and representations obtained from the Company and on the basis of our understanding of the business activities and operations of the Company.

Limitations:

Our views are based on facts and assumptions indicated to us and the existing provisions of tax law and its interpretations, which are subject to change or modification from time to time by subsequent legislative, regulatory, administrative, or judicial decisions. Any such changes, which could also be retrospective, could have an effect on the validity of our views stated herein.

We assume no obligation to update this statement on any events subsequent to its issue, which may have a material effect on the discussions herein. This report including enclosed annexure are intended solely for your information and for the inclusion in the Offer Document or any other issue related material in connection with the proposed initial public offer of the Company and is not to be used, referred to or distributed for any other purpose without our prior written consent.

ANNEXURE TO THE STATEMENT OF SPECIAL TAX BENEFITS

The information provided below sets out the special tax benefits available to the Company and the Equity Shareholders under the Income Tax Act, 1961 presently in force in India. It is not exhaustive or comprehensive and is not intended to be a substitute for professional advice. Investors are advised to consult their own tax consultant with respect to the tax implications of an investment in Equity Shares particularly in view of the fact that certain recently enacted legislation may not have a direct legal precedent or may have a different interpretation on the benefits, which an investor can avail.

A. SPECIAL DIRECT AND INDIRECT TAX BENEFITS TO THE COMPANY:

Under the Income Tax Act, 1961 (“the Act”)

Special tax benefits available to the Company

- The Company is not entitled to any special tax benefits under the Income Tax Act, 1961 and GST Act.

B. SPECIAL DIRECT AND INDIRECT TAX BENEFITS TO THE SHAREHOLDERS:

- The Shareholders of the Company are not entitled to any special tax benefits under the Income Tax Act, 1961 and GST Act.

NOTES:

1. The above Annexure of special tax benefits sets out the provisions of Tax Laws in a summary manner only and is not a complete analysis or listing of all potential tax consequences of the purchase, ownership and disposal of shares.
2. The above Annexure covers only the special tax benefits under the Act, read with the relevant rules, circulars and notifications and does not cover any benefit under any other law in force in India. This Annexure also does not discuss any tax consequences, in the country outside India, of an investment in the shares of an Indian company.
3. The above Annexure of special tax benefits is as per the current direct tax laws relevant for the assessment year 2024-25. Several of these benefits are dependent on the Company or its shareholders fulfilling the conditions prescribed under the relevant provisions of the Tax Laws.
4. In respect of non-residents, the tax rates and consequent taxation mentioned above will be further subject to any benefits available under the relevant Double Taxation Avoidance Agreement, if any, entered into between India and the country in which the non-resident has fiscal domicile.
5. A new Section 115BAA has been inserted by the Taxation Laws (Amendment) Act, 2019 (‘the Amendment Act, 2019’) with effect from Financial Year 2019-20 granting an option to domestic companies to compute corporate tax at a reduced rate of 25.168% (22% plus surcharge of 10% and cess of 4%), provided such companies do not avail specified exemptions/ incentives. The option under section 115BAA of the Act once exercised cannot be subsequently withdrawn for any future financial year. The Amendment Act, 2019 further provides that domestic companies availing such option will not be required to pay Minimum Alternate Tax (‘MAT’) under Section 115JB. The CBDT has further issued Circular 29/2019 dated October 02, 2019 clarifying that since the MAT provisions under Section 115JB itself would not apply where a domestic company exercises option of lower tax rate under Section 115BAA, MAT credit would not be available.

In such a case, the Company is not allowed to claim any of the following deductions/ exemptions under the Act:

- ✓ Deduction under the provisions of Section 10AA.
- ✓ Deduction under clause (iia) of sub- section (1) of Section 32 (additional depreciation).
- ✓ Deduction under section 32AD or Section 33AB or Section 33ABA
- ✓ Deduction under section 35AD or Section 35CCC
- ✓ Deduction under section 80G

Lower corporate tax rate under Section 115BAA of the Act and Minimum Alternate Tax (‘MAT’) credit under section 115JAA of the Act which are in general available and hence may not be treated as special tax benefits.

The Company has evaluated and decided to exercise the option permitted under Section 115BAA of the Act for the purpose of computing its income-tax liability for the Financial Year 2020-21 and onwards.

6. This Annexure is intended only to provide general information to the investors and is neither designed nor intended to be a substitute for professional tax advice. In view of the individual nature of tax consequences, each investor is advised to consult his or her tax advisor with respect to specific tax consequences of his/her investment in the shares of the Company.
7. No assurance is given that the revenue authorities/ courts will concur with the views expressed herein. The views are based on the existing provisions of law and its interpretation, which are subject to changes from time to time. We do not assume responsibility to update the views consequent to such changes.

GLOBAL ECONOMIC OVERVIEW

Forces Shaping the Outlook

The global economy is holding steady, although the degree of grip varies widely across countries. Global GDP growth in the third quarter of 2024 was 0.1 percentage point below that predicted in the October 2024 WEO, after disappointing data releases in some Asian and European economies. Growth in China, at 4.7 percent in year-over-year terms, was below expectations. Faster-than-expected net export growth only partly offset a faster-than-expected slowdown in consumption amid delayed stabilization in the property market and persistently low consumer confidence. Growth in India also slowed more than expected, led by a sharper-than-expected deceleration in industrial activity. Growth continued to be subdued in the euro area (with Germany's performance lagging that of other euro area countries), largely reflecting continued weakness in manufacturing and goods exports even as consumption picked up in line with the recovery in real incomes. In Japan, output contracted mildly owing to temporary supply disruptions. By contrast, momentum in the United States remained robust, with the economy expanding at a rate of 2.7 percent in year-over-year terms in the third quarter, powered by strong consumption. Global disinflation continues, but there are signs that progress is stalling in some countries and that elevated inflation is persistent in a few cases. The global median of sequential core inflation has been just slightly above 2 percent for the past few months. Nominal wage growth is showing signs of moderation, alongside indications of continuing normalization in labor markets. Although core goods price inflation has fallen back to or below trend, services price inflation is still running above pre-COVID-19 averages in many economies, most notably the United States and the euro area. Pockets of elevated inflation, reflecting a range of idiosyncratic factors, also persist in some emerging market and developing economies in Europe and Latin America.

Where inflation is proving more sticky, central banks are moving more cautiously in the easing cycle while keeping a close eye on activity and labor market indicators as well as exchange rate movements. A few central banks are raising rates, marking a point of divergence in monetary policy.

Global financial conditions remain largely accommodative, again with some differentiation across jurisdictions (see Box 1). Equities in advanced economies have rallied on expectations of more business friendly policies in the United States. In emerging market and developing economies, equity valuations have been more subdued, and a broad-based strengthening of the US dollar, driven primarily by expectations of new tariffs and higher interest rates in the United States, has kept financial conditions tighter.

Economic policy uncertainty has increased sharply, especially on the trade and fiscal fronts, with some differentiation across countries (Figure 1). Expectations of policy shifts under newly elected governments in 2024 have shaped financial market pricing in recent months. Bouts of political instability in some Asian and European countries have rattled markets and injected additional uncertainty regarding stalled progress on fiscal and structural policies. Geopolitical tensions, including those in the Middle East, and global trade frictions remain elevated.

The Outlook

IMF staff projections assume current policies in place at the time of publication. They incorporate recent market developments and the impact of heightened trade policy uncertainty, which is assumed to be temporary, with the effects unwinding after about a year, but refrain from making any assumptions about potential policy changes that are currently under public debate. Energy commodity prices are expected to decline by 2.6 percent in 2025, more than assumed in October. This reflects a decline in oil prices driven by weak Chinese demand and strong supply from countries outside of OPEC+ (Organization of the Petroleum Exporting Countries plus selected nonmember countries, including Russia), partly offset by increases in gas prices as a result of colder-than-expected weather and supply disruptions, including the ongoing conflict in the Middle East and outages in gas fields. Nonfuel commodity prices are expected to increase by 2.5 percent in 2025, on account of upward revisions to food and beverage prices relative to the October 2024 WEO, driven by bad weather affecting large producers. Monetary policy rates of major central banks are expected to continue to decline, though at different paces, reflecting variations in growth and inflation outlooks. The fiscal policy stance is expected to tighten during 2025–26 in advanced economies including the United States and, to a lesser extent, in emerging market and developing economies.

Global growth is expected to remain stable, albeit lackluster. At 3.3 percent in both 2025 and 2026, the forecasts for growth are below the historical (2000–19) average of 3.7 percent and broadly unchanged from October (Table 1; see also Annex Table 1). The overall picture, however, hides divergent paths across economies and a precarious global growth profile (Figure 2).

Among advanced economies, growth forecast revisions go in different directions. In the United States, underlying demand remains robust, reflecting strong wealth effects, a less restrictive monetary policy stance, and supportive financial conditions. Growth is projected to be at 2.7 percent in 2025. This is 0.5 percentage point higher than the October forecast, in part reflecting carryover from 2024 as well as robust labor markets and accelerating investment, among other signs of strength. Growth is expected to taper to potential in 2026.

In the euro area, growth is expected to pick up but at a more gradual pace than anticipated in October, with geopolitical tensions continuing to weigh on sentiment. Weaker-than-expected momentum at the end of 2024, especially in manufacturing, and heightened political and policy uncertainty explain a downward revision of 0.2 percentage point to 1.0 percent in 2025. In 2026, growth is set to rise to 1.4 percent, helped by stronger domestic demand, as financial conditions loosen, confidence improves, and uncertainty recedes somewhat.

In other advanced economies, two offsetting forces keep growth forecasts relatively stable. On the one hand, recovering real incomes are expected to support the cyclical recovery in consumption. On the other hand, trade headwinds—including the sharp uptick in trade policy uncertainty—are expected to keep investment subdued.

In emerging market and developing economies, growth performance in 2025 and 2026 is expected to broadly match that in 2024. With respect to the projection in October, growth in 2025 for China is marginally revised upward by 0.1 percentage point to 4.6 percent. This revision reflects carryover from 2024 and the fiscal package announced in November largely offsetting the negative effect on investment from heightened trade policy uncertainty and property market drag. In 2026, growth is projected mostly to remain stable at 4.5 percent, as the effects of trade policy uncertainty dissipate and the retirement age increase slows down the decline in the labor supply. In India, growth is projected to be solid at 6.5 percent in 2025 and 2026, as projected in October and in line with potential.

In the Middle East and Central Asia, growth is projected to pick up, but less than expected in October. This mainly reflects a 1.3 percentage point downward revision to 2025 growth in Saudi Arabia, mostly driven by the extension of OPEC+ production cuts. In Latin America and the Caribbean, overall growth is projected to accelerate slightly in 2025 to 2.5 percent, despite an expected slowdown in the largest economies of the region. Growth in sub-Saharan Africa is expected to pick up in 2025, while it is forecast to slow down in emerging and developing Europe.

World trade volume estimates are revised downward slightly for 2025 and 2026. The revision owes to the sharp increase in trade policy uncertainty, which is likely to hurt investment disproportionately among trade-intensive firms. That said, in the baseline, the impact of heightened uncertainty is expected to be transitory. Furthermore, the front-loading of some trade flows in view of elevated trade policy uncertainty, and in anticipation of tighter trade restrictions, provides some offset in the near term.

Progress on disinflation is expected to continue. Deviations from the October 2024 WEO forecasts are minimal. The gradual cooling of labor markets is expected to keep demand pressures at bay. Combined with the expected decline in energy prices, headline inflation is projected to continue its descent toward central bank targets. That said, inflation is projected to be close to, but above, the 2 percent target in 2025 in the United States, whereas inflationary dynamics are expected to be more subdued in the euro area. Low inflation is projected to persist in China. Consequently, the gap between anticipated policy rates in the United States and other countries becomes wider.

Risks to the Outlook

In the medium term, the balance of risks to the outlook is tilted to the downside, with global growth poised to be lower than its 2025–26 average and five-year-ahead forecasts at about 3 percent. Near-term risks, in contrast, could reinforce divergences across countries: they are tilted to the upside in the United States, whereas downside risks prevail in most other economies amid elevated policy uncertainty and headwinds from ongoing adjustments (in particular, energy in Europe and real estate in China).

An intensification of protectionist policies, for instance, in the form of a new wave of tariffs, could exacerbate trade tensions, lower investment, reduce market efficiency, distort trade flows, and again disrupt supply chains. Growth could suffer in both the near and medium term, but at varying degrees across economies.

Looser fiscal policy in the United States, driven by new expansionary measures such as tax cuts, could boost economic activity in the near term, with small positive spillovers onto global growth. Yet in the longer run, this may require a larger fiscal policy adjustment that could become disruptive to markets and the economy, by potentially weakening the role of US Treasuries as the global safe asset, among other things. Furthermore, higher borrowing to fund looser fiscal policy could increase demand for capital globally, leading to an increase in interest rates and possibly depressing economic activity elsewhere.

Confidence and positive sentiment in the United States, partly driven by deregulation, could boost both the demand and the supply side of the economy. While relaxation of unduly tight regulations and reduced red tape for businesses may spur near-term US growth through higher investment, dollar appreciation could fuel risks of capital outflows from emerging market and developing economies and drive risk premiums upward. Moreover, an excessive rollback of regulations designed to put limits on risk-taking and debt accumulation may generate boom-bust dynamics for the United States in the longer term, with repercussions for the rest of the world. Downside risks to macro-financial stability may be amplified if compounded by a weaker fiscal outlook or stalled progress on structural reforms. Other supply-side shocks, such as labor force disruptions driven by reductions in migration flows to the United States, may permanently reduce potential output and raise inflation during the adjustment period.

A near-term boost for the US economy emanating from these factors would further underscore the divergent growth patterns across economies. If the adverse effects of tariffs and reduction in the labor force dominate, global activity as well as activity in the United States might be affected negatively in the medium term. Uncertainties are high: the effects of each factor would unfold differently across countries, influenced by trade and financial linkages; policy responses to actions taken by other countries could play out in a variety of ways, including an escalation of retaliatory tariffs; and the impacts of different policy combinations or different magnitudes of policy changes could be quite different.

Inflation dynamics could be shaped in opposite directions by these factors. The magnitude of the inflationary effect from tariffs is especially uncertain. While recent empirical studies find high pass-through to import prices, estimates of pass-through to consumer prices are lower and subject to significant uncertainty. Nevertheless, compared with what took place in earlier episodes of trade disputes, several factors suggest that upside risks to inflation from tariff hikes could be higher this time. First, the global economy is coming out of the most significant inflation surge in recent memory. Inflation expectations, especially in many advanced economies, are farther above the central bank target today than in 2017–21 (Figure 3). Second, the cyclical positions of many major economies are more conducive to higher inflation today than in 2016. Third, retaliation in the form of restrictions on specific, difficult-to-substitute materials or intermediate goods may have an outsized impact on aggregate inflation.

The risk of renewed inflationary pressures could prompt central banks to raise policy rates and intensify monetary policy divergence. Higher-for-even-longer interest rates could worsen fiscal, financial, and external risks. A stronger US dollar, arising from interest rate differentials and tariffs, among other factors, could alter capital flow patterns and global imbalances and complicate macroeconomic trade-offs.

In addition to risks from economic policy shifts, geopolitical tensions could intensify, leading to renewed spikes in commodity prices. The conflicts in the Middle East and Ukraine could worsen, directly affecting trade routes as well as food and energy prices. Commodity-importing countries may be particularly affected, with the stagflation impact of higher commodity prices compounded by an appreciating dollar.

On the upside, global economic activity may enjoy a bounce if incoming governments can renegotiate existing trade agreements and forge new deals. This could relieve uncertainty faster and be much less disruptive to growth and inflation. By boosting confidence, such cooperative outcomes could even support investment and medium-term growth prospects.

Momentum on other policy fronts could also lift growth. Many countries may embrace structural reforms to prevent divergence from their better-performing peers from becoming entrenched. Efforts to increase labor supply, reduce misallocation, enhance competition, and support innovation could raise medium-term growth.

Policy Priorities

Against the backdrop of elevated uncertainty, policies need to rein in short-term risks and rebuild buffers while pushing ahead efforts to lift medium-term growth prospects.

Monetary policy should ensure that price stability is restored while supporting activity and employment. In economies in which inflationary pressures are proving persistent and the risk of upside surprises is on the rise, a restrictive stance will need to be maintained until evidence is clearer that the underlying inflation is sustainably returning to target. In economies in which activity is cooling fast and inflation is on track to durably go back to target, a less restrictive stance is justified.

In either case, fiscal policy should consolidate to put public debt on a sustainable path and restore the space needed for more agile responses. The consolidation path needs to be carefully calibrated to the conditions a particular economy is facing. It should be sizable yet gradual to avoid hurting economic activity, clearly communicated to avoid disruptions in debt markets, and credible to achieve long-lasting results. Adopting a growth-friendly approach and mitigating the adverse impacts on poor individuals could help preserve the economy's potential and maintain public support.

The divergent paths of monetary policy across countries could generate significant movements in exchange rates and capital flows. As laid out in the IMF's Integrated Policy Framework, adjusting policy rates and allowing exchange rate flexibility are advisable for countries with deep foreign exchange markets and low levels of foreign-currency debt. For those with shallow foreign exchange markets and substantial amounts of foreign-currency debt, temporary foreign exchange interventions (provided that foreign reserves are adequate and used prudently), capital flow management measures, macroprudential policies, or some combination of the three could, in some cases, accompany appropriately set monetary and fiscal policies to preserve macrofinancial stability.

Beyond the near term, decisive policy action is needed to enhance economic dynamism, boost the supply side, and counter the rising risks to the already-dim medium-term growth prospects. Targeted reforms in labor markets, competition, health care, education, and digitalization can revive productivity growth and attract capital. Active communication to build consensus and continuous engagement with key stakeholders could help policymakers design and effectively implement measures that consider the distributional impact of reform.

Last but not least, multilateral cooperation is vital in containing fragmentation, sustaining growth and stability, and addressing global challenges. Trade policies should be consistent with the legal framework of the World Trade Organization (WTO), as well as being clear and transparent, to reduce uncertainty, lower volatility in markets, and mitigate distortions. Priorities should be given to restoring a fully and well-functioning WTO dispute settlement system, leveling the playing field, and achieving clarity and coherence of the desire among countries for greater resilience within the rules-based multilateral trading system.

INDIAN ECONOMY OVERVIEW

Introduction

Strong economic growth in the first quarter of FY23 helped India overcome the UK to become the fifth-largest economy after it recovered from the COVID-19 pandemic shock. Nominal GDP or GDP at Current Prices for Q1 2024-25 is estimated at Rs. 77.31 lakh crores (US$ 928.9 billion) with growth rate of 9.7%, compared to the growth of 8.5% for Q1 2023-24. The growth in nominal GDP during 2023-24 is estimated at 9.6% as compared to 14.2% in 2022-23. Strong domestic demand for consumption and investment, along with Government's continued emphasis on capital expenditure are seen as among the key driver of the GDP in the second half of FY24. During the period April-September 2025, India's exports stood at US$ 211.46 billion, with Engineering Goods (26.57%), Petroleum Products (16.51%) and electronic goods (7.39%) being the top three exported commodity. Rising employment and increasing private consumption, supported by rising consumer sentiment, will support GDP growth in the coming months.

Future capital spending of the government in the economy is expected to be supported by factors such as tax buoyancy, the streamlined tax system with low rates, a thorough assessment and rationalisation of the tariff structure, and the digitization of tax filing. In the medium run, increased capital spending on infrastructure and asset-building projects is set to increase growth multipliers. The contact-based services sector has demonstrated promise to boost growth by unleashing the pent-up demand. The sector's success is being captured by a number of HFIs (High-Frequency Indicators) that are performing well, indicating the beginnings of a comeback.

India has emerged as the fastest-growing major economy in the world and is expected to be one of the top three economic powers in the world over the next 10-15 years, backed by its robust democracy and strong partnerships.

India's appeal as a destination for investments has grown stronger and more sustainable because of the current period of global unpredictability and volatility, and the record amounts of money raised by India-focused funds in 2022 are evidence of investor faith in the "Invest in India" narrative.

Market Size

Real GDP or GDP at Constant (2011-12) Prices for the period Q1 2024-25 is estimated at Rs. 43.64 lakh crore (US$ 524 billion), against the First Revised Estimates (FRE) of GDP for the year Q1 2023-24 of Rs. 40.91 lakh crore (US$ 491 million). The growth in real GDP during 2023-24 is estimated at 8.2% as compared to 7.0% in 2022-23. There are 113 unicorn startups in India, with a combined valuation of over US$ 350 billion. As many as 14 tech startups are expected to list in 2024 Fintech sector poised to generate the largest number of future unicorns in India. With India presently has the third-largest unicorn base in the world. The government is also focusing on renewable sources by achieving 40% of its energy from non-fossil sources by 2030. India is committed to achieving the country's ambition of Net Zero Emissions by 2070 through a five-pronged strategy, 'Panchamrit'. Moreover, India ranked 3rd in the renewable energy country attractive index.

According to the McKinsey Global Institute, India needs to boost its rate of employment growth and create 90 million non-farm jobs between 2023 to 2030 in order to increase productivity and economic growth. The net employment rate needs to grow by 1.5% per annum from 2023 to 2030 to achieve 8-8.5% GDP growth between same time periods. India's current account deficit (CAD) narrowed to 0.7% of GDP in FY24. The CAD stood at US$ 9.7 billion for the Q1 2024-25 from US$ 8.9 billion in Q1 2023-24 or 1.1% of GDP. This was largely due to decrease in merchandise trade deficit.

Exports fared remarkably well during the pandemic and aided recovery when all other growth engines were losing steam in terms of their contribution to GDP. Going forward, the contribution of merchandise exports may waver as several of India's trade partners witness an economic slowdown. According to Minister of Commerce and Industry, Consumer Affairs, Food and Public Distribution and Textiles Mr. Piyush Goyal, Indian exports are expected to reach US$ 1 trillion by 2030.

Recent Developments

India is primarily a domestic demand-driven economy, with consumption and investments contributing to 70% of the economic activity. With an improvement in the economic scenario and the Indian economy recovering from the Covid-19 pandemic shock, several investments and developments have been made across various sectors of the economy. As per depository data, Foreign Portfolio Investors (FPIs) invested (US$ 13.89 billion) in India during January- (up to 15th July) 2024.
- The wheat procurement during Rabi Marketing Season (RMS) 2024-25 (till May) was estimated to be 266 lakh metric tonnes (LMT) and the rice procured in Kharif Marketing Season (KMS) 2024-25 was 400 LMT.

Over the years, the Indian government has introduced many initiatives to strengthen the nation's economy. The Indian government has been effective in developing policies and programmes that are not only beneficial for citizens to improve their financial stability but also for the overall growth of the economy. Road Ahead

In the second quarter of FY24, the growth momentum of the first quarter was sustained, and high-frequency indicators (HFIs) performed well in July and August of 2023. India's comparatively strong position in the external sector reflects the country's positive outlook for economic growth and rising employment rates. India ranked 5th in foreign direct investment inflows among the developed and developing nations listed for the first quarter of 2022.

India's economic story during the first half of the current financial year highlighted the unwavering support the government gave to its capital expenditure, which, in 2023-24, stood 37.4% higher than the same period last year. In the budget of 2024-25, capital expenditure took lead by steeply increasing the capital expenditure outlay by 17.1 % to Rs.11 lakh crore (US$ 133.51 billion) over Rs. 9.48 lakh crore (US$ 113.91 billion) in 2023-24. Stronger revenue generation because of improved tax compliance, increased profitability of the company, and increasing economic activity also contributed to rising capital spending levels.

Since India's resilient growth despite the global pandemic, India's exports climbed at the second-highest rate with a year-over-year (YoY) growth of 8.39% in merchandise exports and a 29.82% growth in service exports till April 2023. With a reduction in port congestion, supply networks are being restored. The CPI-C inflation reduction from June 2022 already reflects the impact. In September 2023 (Provisional), CPI-C inflation was 5.02%, down from 7.01% in June 2022. With a proactive set of administrative actions by the government, flexible monetary policy, and a softening of global commodity prices and supply-chain bottlenecks, inflationary pressures in India look to be on the decline overall.

GLOBAL MANUFACTURING INDUSTRY

Geopolitical driving forces

Political stability and international cooperation can create a favourable environment for manufacturing sector growth, with trade agreements, infrastructure investments, and government incentives stimulating industrial expansion and technological advancement. Geopolitical collaborations, such as those aimed at climate action, can drive the adoption of sustainable practices, opening up new global markets and reducing operational risks through international standards. However, geopolitical tensions and protectionist policies can disrupt supply chains, increase costs, and create uncertainty for all manufacturers. Trade wars, sanctions, and political instability in key regions can lead to supply shortages and higher tariffs, making it difficult for manufacturers to plan and invest. Additionally, shifting regulatory landscapes across different countries can create compliance challenges, requiring manufacturers to constantly adapt to new legal requirements and standards.

Economic driving forces

A robust global economy supports growth in manufacturing industries through increased demand, investment in new technologies, and expanding production capacity. Economic development in emerging markets can open new avenues for investment and create larger consumer bases for manufactured goods. Access to capital markets and favourable interest rates also facilitate expansion and innovation. However, economic downturns, inflation, and fluctuating currency exchange rates can negatively impact manufacturing. Recessions can decrease demand, forcing manufacturing companies to downsize or delay investments. Rising material and labour costs and global supply chain disruptions can squeeze profit margins and make it difficult for manufacturers to remain competitive. Economic inequality can also impact consumer spending patterns, affecting demand for specific products.

Social driving forces

Social trends, such as the growing demand for mass customised or personalised products and the emphasis on their sustainability, can drive innovation and open up new market opportunities in manufacturing industries. Consumer preferences for ethically produced goods can lead to higher sales for manufacturing companies prioritising social responsibility. Additionally, focusing on diversity and inclusion in the workforce can lead to more creative problem-solving and improved corporate culture, enhancing productivity and employee satisfaction. On the other hand, changing social expectations can pose challenges for manufacturers. The increasing emphasis on corporate social responsibility (CSR) requires manufacturers to invest in ethical practices, which can be costly and complex. Additionally, shifts in consumer behaviours, like the move towards minimalism or digital consumption, can reduce demand for physical products. Labour shortages, driven by demographic shifts or evolving career preferences, can also create challenges in finding and retaining skilled workers.

Technological driving forces

Technological advancements, such as artificial intelligence (AI), robotics, and the Industrial Internet of Things (IIoT), are revolutionising many manufacturing industries by enhancing efficiency, reducing costs, and enabling new product innovations. These advanced technologies allow for more precise and flexible production processes, better quality control, and the ability to respond to market changes rapidly. The continued development of the Industry 4.0 paradigm will enable manufacturers to create brighter, more connected factories that can optimise production resources and reduce waste. However, the rapid pace of technological change also presents significant challenges. Adopting new technologies can be prohibitive, particularly for smaller manufacturing companies. Cybersecurity threats are also a considerable concern, as more connected systems create new vulnerabilities. Also, the reliance on complex technologies can lead to operational disruptions if systems fail or there is a need for more skilled workers to manage and maintain them. The digital divide between manufacturing regions and companies could exacerbate inequalities within the sector.

Legal driving forces

Clear and consistent legal frameworks can provide stability and predictability for manufacturers, enabling them to plan and invest confidently. Regulations that promote fair competition, protection of intellectual property, and ensure safety and environmental standards can create a level playing field and encourage innovation. Government incentives for sustainable practices and technological innovation can drive industry growth and modernisation. Yet increasingly complex and varied legal requirements across different jurisdictions can create significant challenges for global manufacturers. Compliance with environmental, safety, and labour regulations can increase operational costs and complexity. Frequent regulation changes, particularly in data protection or environmental standards, can lead to uncertainty and require costly adjustments. Non-compliance risks, including fines and reputational damage, are also significant concerns for manufacturers operating in multiple legal environments.

Environmental driving forces

Environmental forces, like the growing focus on sustainability, are driving significant innovation in the manufacturing sector. Hence, manufacturing companies that adopt eco-friendly practices can benefit from enhanced brand reputation, access to new markets, and compliance with regulatory requirements. The shift towards renewable energy and resource-efficient processes can also lead to long-term cost savings and resilience against resource scarcity. However, environmental challenges also pose significant risks. Climate change can disrupt supply chains, damage infrastructure, and create uncertainty in resource availability. Complying with increasingly stringent environmental regulations can require substantial investment in new sustainable (green) technologies and processes, which may strain resources, particularly for smaller manufacturers. Additionally, pressures to reduce environmental impact can conflict with traditional business and operating models focused on growth and profitability, requiring manufacturing companies to rethink their strategies and make difficult trade-offs.

Tipping points

A tipping point, in the manufacturing context, is defined as a point in time, a moment of critical mass when one or more radical changes or shifts take place in a manufacturing intra- or inter-ecosystem or part of it, so this becomes self-perpetuating beyond its threshold, leading to substantial, widespread, frequently abrupt, and often irreversible impacts to itself and surrounding environment, being these effects of a positive or negative nature.² More specifically, such disrupting shifts, caused by a tipping point, in a manufacturing intra- or inter-ecosystem can trigger non-linear change processes driven by one or more system-internal feedback mechanisms. These processes inevitably lead to qualitative differences, positive or negative, in the system's state, which are often irreversible.³ A positive manufacturing tipping point is a critical threshold where geopolitical, economic, social, technological, legal and/or environmental forces trigger significant changes for good in manufacturing and supply chain practices, self-reinforcing progress towards more sustainable and equitable manufacturing ecosystems. These tipping points can lead to rapid and widespread transformations of the manufacturing industries, like digital and green transitions, driving systemic shifts towards sustainable industrial development. Hence, positive tipping points are crucial for accelerating the evolution of new sustainable manufacturing businesses and operating models. This can help overcome the inertia to keep or delay the status quo and address the grand manufacturing challenges many industries must soon face.⁴ Conversely, a negative manufacturing tipping point is a predominant detrimental event or momentum in time where geopolitical, economic, social, technological, legal, and/or environmental forces trigger negative shifts or cause damaging impacts to positive manufacturing and supply chain practices. These forces switch manufacturing ecosystems into an undesired system state, causing degradation to their performance and surrounding environment. These undesired tipping points can quickly lead to cascading adverse events that ultimately destabilise and threaten the global manufacturing sector's economic, environmental, and social sustainability.

Geopolitical tipping points

In the global manufacturing context, a geopolitical tipping point is a critical juncture in international trade relations or global political relations that has the potential to significantly alter, positively or negatively, the structure, functioning, or stability of worldwide manufacturing and supply networks. These tipping points can lead to significant changes, for better or worse, in how and where goods are produced, sourced, and traded, causing reconfigurations in global supply chains and manufacturing hubs and impacts in their markets, shifting the global manufacturing dynamics. Positive geopolitical tipping points refer to significant events or developments that reshape the global manufacturing landscape, leading to favourable happenings. These events, such as the signature of international trade agreements or regional economic integration efforts, enable positive outcomes for the manufacturing sector, for example, enhanced economic growth for industries, development of emerging markets, increased international trade cooperation, manufacturing (and logistics) innovation, and resilience in global supply chains. These positive tipping points aim for a more stable and diversified global economy with economic development opportunities for all markets, from emerging to developed, increased international trade, and advanced sustainable manufacturing and supply chain practices. Alternatively, negative geopolitical tipping points are critical incidents that disrupt the global manufacturing landscape. These adverse events include trade wars, protectionism, export restrictions, and regulatory fragmentation, to mention a few that disturb or even interrupt international trade and global supply chain operations. Their cascading effects can negatively impact the global manufacturing sector, for instance, starting with increased production costs and reduced international trade efficiency, followed by shortages of raw materials and closure of supply routes, up to the extreme need to relocate production facilities.

Economic tipping points

In the global manufacturing landscape, an economic tipping point refers to a critical threshold where a significant, positive or negative change or shift occurs in the economic conditions that determine a market's manufacturing and consumption patterns. These tipping points can lead to new business and operating models, emerging industrial leaders, evolving market dynamics, or fresh sources of competitive advantage after the economic alterations have passed, with some being winners or losers because of these economic changes. Consequently, positive economic tipping points refer to critical moments where a favourable transformative change occurs in the economy, leading to widespread benefits for the manufacturing sector and society. Examples of these moments include the achievement of economies of scale in novel manufacturing paradigms such as green manufacturing, lowering the marginal costs of production of green products, and leading to increased investment, job creation, and sustainable economic growth in green industries, or shifts to new economic models like the circular economy that can reduce the need for virgin raw materials and minimise waste, lowering overall production costs and creating new revenue streams from repairs, refurbishment, remanufacturing, and recycling activities. Overall, these positive tipping points enhance productivity, reduce production costs, and create new growth opportunities for manufacturers. Conversely, negative economic tipping points imply critical events where economic changes adversely affect manufacturing industries and their markets. Some instances that could cause a negative economic tipping point are trade wars, labour shortages, resource scarcity, and financial crises. These types of tipping points, first of all, can be connected to other kinds of tipping points, such as geopolitical and social ones and can have profound effects leading to reduced economic growth, a slowdown in global trade, higher unemployment rates, the rise of production resource prices, and delays in investments.

Social tipping points

In worldwide manufacturing, a social tipping point means a profound, positive or negative moment when cumulative social pressures or societal factors like labour movements, or even sometimes new labour regulations, reach a point that causes a significant change or shift, for better or worse, in manufacturing practices related to labour standards and working conditions. In their positive type, these tipping points advocate for more socially responsible manufacturing industries offering fair wages, safe and healthy working conditions, respectful treatment of all employees, and engagement with the local communities that surround them to nurture positive relationships. On the one hand, positive social tipping points describe a severe moment when societal pressures create beneficial changes for the workforce, ensuring notable improvements in workers' quality of personal and professional life. These joyous moments include adopting fair labour standards, including health and safety, strengthening workers' rights and unions, investing in workers' training and development, promoting gender equality and diversity, creating more inclusive workplaces, and improving worklife balance initiatives. By focusing on making these positive moments happen, manufacturing industries can create more supportive work environments and engage their workforces in their jobs, leading to increased productivity. On the other hand, negative social tipping points relate to a critical time when societal pressures, sometimes combined with economic and technological pressures (tipping points), lead to harmful or destabilising shifts in the labour market and working conditions, severely affecting workers' employment rates, wages, safety standards, and overall physical and mental wellbeing. Patterns of these negative tipping points include discrimination and inequality in labour practices, evasion of safety and occupational health regulations, labour exploitation, and even unjustified job displacements due to automation and robotics. Addressing these social issues will require a strong focus on labour rights, protections, and equitable practices to ensure that workers are not left behind as industries evolve or are pressured.

Technological tipping points

In international manufacturing, a technological tipping point indicates a point in time when a specific technology or set of technologies reaches or fails to reach a level of maturity, affordability, and adoption that causes a dramatic shift in global manufacturing and supply chain practices, like the case of the new Industry 4.0 technologies that have given birth to the digital and smart manufacturing paradigms, or the case of the artificial intelligence winters when this technology has stagnated before reaching its plateau of productivity. These shifts include widespread changes in how products are designed, engineered, manufactured, and delivered and how processes are executed and controlled. Moreover, reaching a technological tipping point often triggers other changes (or tipping points), including shifts in competitive dynamics, business and operating models, nature of work, and supply chain configurations. Accordingly, positive technological tipping points denote a moment when a new technology or set of technologies leads to significant improvements in products and production efficiency, quality, and sustainability. These tipping points can create economic, environmental, and social benefits for manufacturers. Examples include additive manufacturing (also known as '3D printing') technologies that have allowed for rapid prototyping, customisation, and on-demand (low- and mid-volume) production with beneficial triple-bottom-line outcomes by reducing material waste, energy consumption, and environmental impact (footprint) in contrast to subtractive manufacturing processes, offering more design freedom, hence, leveraging human creativity, and opening up new possibilities for novel production and supply chain models such as distributed manufacturing; advanced (collaborative) robotics and (smart) automation technologies that have improved production precision and speed, offering higher productivity levels and better quality controls, and removed workers from dull, dirty, and dangerous tasks in manufacturing processes; or digital-twin technologies (including their set of related technologies such as the Industrial Internet of Things (IIoT) and machine learning) that have led to significant improvements in manufacturing efficiency thanks to their real-time process monitoring, analysis, and optimisation. Conversely, negative technological tipping points can occur when a new technology or set of technologies recognise that they have failed to deliver their promised value and, therefore, the possibility of return on investment or when their delivered benefits are outweighed by their utilisation risks. For instance, cybersecurity threats if proper cybersecurity frameworks are not implemented before connecting any IIoT device, equipment, or system to the enterprise industrial network. Furthermore, it is also possible to consider other hybrid negative socio technological tipping points like an overreliance on automation or lack of digital skills in the workforce that have led to big failures in adopting new technologies with significant setbacks in the digital transformation journey of a manufacturer. Thus, careful consideration and management of technological changes are advised to mitigate their negative tipping points.

Legal tipping points

Within a global manufacturing environment, a legal tipping point refers to a critical moment when an international (or national) regulation, law, policy, standard, or agreement changes, for better or worse, with significant, positive or negative impacts on the way manufacturing industries operate and conduct their businesses. Consequently, these tipping points drive substantial changes in industry practices (including trade), investment decisions, and competitive dynamics. Moreover, legal tipping points are sometimes related to one or more of the already mentioned or to-be-mentioned tipping points. In critical times, positive legal tipping points convey new legal or regulatory developments that drive significant beneficial changes for the manufacturing sector, customers, and society. These changes can incentivise sustainability and innovation with regulations promoting, for instance, the green manufacturing paradigm or the digital and smart manufacturing paradigms, or trade liberalisation through free trade agreements and the harmonisation of international industry standards, including labour rights and intellectual property (IP) protection, that can enhance global supply chain efficiency, allowing manufacturers to compete more effectively, to some extent, in the worldwide marketplace. Then, negative legal tipping points can occur when overly cautious legal frameworks overregulate, for example, emerging technologies such as artificial intelligence or inadequate enforcement of environmental, trade, IP, or labour regulations, leading to a loss of competitiveness for everyone.

Environmental tipping points

In the ecosphere of manufacturing, an environmental tipping point defines a critical threshold, positive or negative, beyond which the ecological impacts of manufacturing processes, including their supply chains, become irreversibly damaging for the planet or may start allowing for its recovery for good. The environmental tipping points are the most well-known type addressed in this Report but have negative connotations, with the climate change crisis being the most representative. Nevertheless, their positive and negative inferences are explored to address mitigation and regeneration actions needed to save our planet, such as the green manufacturing paradigm or the emerging circular and regenerative manufacturing paradigms. As a result, positive environmental tipping points refer to pivotal changes or shifts in manufacturing and supply chain practices where at least net-zero, but hopefully netpositive, operations are achieved, stopping the detrimental impact of the sector and its industries on our planet and starting its regeneration with the help of the widespread adoption of green technologies, circular business models, sustainable materials, and carbon-neutral manufacturing processes in a first instance, immediately followed by the vision of the so-called regenerative manufacturing systems that aim to put more back into society and the environment than they take out, to compensate for the harm of past industrial systems. Lastly, negative environmental tipping points highlight the critical thresholds beyond which the environmental impacts of manufacturing and supply chain operations become so severe that they cause irreversible damage to the ecosphere of the sector and society and whose cascading adverse effects are so complex, if not impossible, to reverse. Infamous examples it is hoped will be avoided are climate catastrophe, critical resource exhaustion (like rare earth materials, fundamental for technology development), pollution overload, and waste management failure. Avoiding these negative environmental tipping points is crucial for ensuring the long-term ecological sustainability of the global manufacturing sector.

INDIAN MANUFACTURING INDUSTRY

Introduction

Manufacturing is emerging as an integral pillar in the country's economic growth, thanks to the performance of key sectors like automotive, engineering, chemicals, pharmaceuticals, and consumer durables. The Indian manufacturing industry generated 16-17% of India's GDP pre-pandemic and is projected to be one of the fastest growing sectors.

The machine tool industry was literally the nuts and bolts of the manufacturing industry in India. Today, technology has stimulated innovation with digital transformation a key aspect in gaining an edge in this highly competitive market.

Technology has today encouraged creativity, with digital transformation being a critical element in gaining an advantage in this increasingly competitive industry. The Indian manufacturing sector is steadily moving toward more automated and process-driven manufacturing, which is projected to improve efficiency and enhance productivity.

India's manufacturing sector reached a 16-year high in March, with the HSBC Manufacturing Purchasing Managers' Index (PMI) rising to 59.1, driven by strong increases in output, new orders, and job creation across various goods sectors.

India has the capacity to export goods worth US$ 1 trillion by 2030 and is on the road to becoming a major global manufacturing hub.

With 17% of the nation's GDP and over 27.3 million workers, the manufacturing sector plays a significant role in the Indian economy. Through the implementation of different programmes and policies, the Indian government hopes to have 25% of the economy's output come from manufacturing by 2025.

India now has the physical and digital infrastructure to raise the share of the manufacturing sector in the economy and make a realistic bid to be an important player in global supply chains.

A globally competitive manufacturing sector is India's greatest potential to drive economic growth and job creation this decade. Due to factors like power growth, long-term employment prospects, and skill routes for millions of people, India has a significant potential to engage in international markets. Several factors contribute to their potential. First off, these value chains are well positioned to benefit from India's advantages in terms of raw materials, industrial expertise, and entrepreneurship.

Second, they can take advantage of four market opportunities: expanding exports, localising imports, internal demand, and contract manufacturing. With digital transformation being a crucial component in achieving an advantage in this fiercely competitive industry, technology has today sparked creativity. Manufacturing sector in India is gradually shifting to a more automated and process driven manufacturing which is expected to increase the efficiency and boost production of the manufacturing industry.

India is gradually progressing on the road to Industry 4.0 through the Government of India’s initiatives like the National Manufacturing Policy which aims to increase the share of manufacturing in GDP to 25 percent by 2025 and the PLI scheme for manufacturing which was launched in 2022 to develop the core manufacturing sector at par with global manufacturing standards.

FDI in India's manufacturing sector has reached US$ 165.1 billion, a 69% increase over the past decade, driven by production-linked incentive (PLI) schemes. In the last five years, total FDI inflows amounted to US$ 383.5 billion.

India is planning to offer incentives of up to Rs. 18,000 crore (US$ 2.2 billion) to spur local manufacturing in six new sectors including chemicals, shipping containers, and inputs for vaccines.

India's mobile phone manufacturing industry anticipates creating 150,000 to 250,000 direct and indirect jobs within the next 12-16 months, driven by government incentives, and increased global demand. Major players like Apple and its contract manufacturers, along with Dixon Technologies, are expanding their workforce to meet growing production needs.

GLOBAL TRADE INDUSTRY

Global trade is expected to maintain its upward trajectory in the second half of 2024. Trade in goods increased by approximately 1.5 per cent quarter-over-quarter (QoQ) in Q3, while services trade grew by around 1 per cent. According to the UNCTAD nowcast, this positive momentum is expected to continue into Q4. As a result, global trade is set to exceed its 2022 record, reaching nearly US$ 33 trillion in 2024. This record high is largely driven by an annual 7 per cent increase in services trade, while goods trade is projected to grow by about 2 per cent in 2024 and remain below its 2022 peak. Overall, global trade is expected to expand by about US$ 1 trillion (or 3.3 per cent) in 2024, with both goods and services contributing approximately US$ 500 billion each.

Throughout 2024, global trade trends continued to follow the gradual increase that began in the second half of 2023. During the last four quarters, trade growth in developing countries generally outpaced that of developed countries. However, this trend inverted in Q3 2024, with trade growth largely driven by positive trade dynamics in developed economies. In contrast, trade growth in East Asia stalled, and some of the largest Asian developing economies saw negative growth. Overall, trade in services substantially outpaced merchandise trade growth in 2024, although this was partially due to services price inflation. Both merchandise and services trade experienced positive quarter-over-quarter growth in Q3 2024 globally, with expectations for continued growth in Q4, also driven by frontloading in anticipation of potential changes in United States trade policy. Trade in services is expected to finish the year on a positive note, but its strong growth in early 2024 appears to have significantly tapered off in the second half of the year.

As we look into 2025, moderating global inflation, stable economic growth forecasts and improving business activity point to continued positive momentum in global trade for early 2025. However, this trend is expected to face substantial challenges. Potential shifts in United States trade policy, and the increased use of industrial policies in many countries, are likely to negatively influence global trade growth. In addition, the threat of renewed and expanded trade wars, along with ongoing geopolitical tensions, casts uncertainty on the outlook for global trade in 2025.

Some factors making global trade outlook very uncertain for 2025 include:

- Shifts in United States trade policy stance

The United States is anticipated to adopt a more protectionist trade policy. In this context, new tariffs may not only be directed at specific products, but rather implemented more broadly. Moreover, tariffs could be affecting not only geopolitical adversaries but also key trading partners, particularly those with higher tariffs and significant trade surpluses with the United States. Even modest changes in United States tariffs will have substantial effects on global trade dynamics, given the United States's role as a major consumer market and the interconnectedness of cross-border value chains.

- Ripple effects of trade restrictions

Unilateral and highly restrictive trade policies frequently prompt retaliatory actions creating a cycle of escalating trade barriers which may eventually involve also third parties. Moreover, tariffs applied to specific segments of global value chains often have a ripple effect, impacting not only the targeted industries and countries, but also the entire value chain. Even in the absence of actual tariff increases, the mere threat of tariffs and possibility of retaliatory actions fosters a less predictable global trade environment, which can negatively impact not only international trade but also investments and overall economic growth.

- Increase in subsidies and trade restrictive measures

The prioritization of national concerns and the urgency of fulfilling climate commitments will likely continue to shape changes in both industrial and trade policies into 2025. A rise in trade-restrictive measures and inward-looking industrial policies designed to support the production of sustainable and environmentally friendly products is expected to negatively affect the growth of international trade, particularly in strategic sectors.

- United States dollar impact on global trade

Geopolitical tensions and United States policy shifts are expected to potentially lead to an appreciation of the United States dollar. However, possible interest rate cuts in 2025 could also weaken the dollar. Since most commodities and international transactions are priced in United States dollars, its value is crucial for global trade. Consequently, uncertainty about the dollar's strength creates uncertainty in global trade.

- Lower shipping costs

In the second half of 2024 there has been a reduction in demand for container shipping, as reflected by a significant decrease in the Shanghai Containerized Freight Rate Index. While these indices indicate lower shipping costs, they also indicate lower global demand both for intermediate inputs and processed goods.

Trade trends in the major economies

Merchandise trade showed mixed trends among major economies in Q3 2024. China and India trade growth, albeit still positive on an annual basis, saw imports and exports contract in Q3. Brazil's trade growth slowed but remained positive both on an annual and quarterly basis. Republic of Korea export growth also decelerated yet stayed the highest among major economies annually. Conversely, trade accelerated in several major economies. Japan and South Africa saw strong Q3 growth, though their annual performance stayed negative. Similar trends are observed for the Republic of Korea's and European Union imports. The United States stood out with robust trade growth on both annual and quarterly bases, particularly driven by imports.

Services trade continued to grow in Q3 2024, but at a slower pace compared to annual figures, suggesting that the positive trend in services trade may have plateaued for most economies. Growth remained strong in the trade of services for the European Union and the Republic of Korea, as well as in Brazil's and the Russian Federation's imports, and in China's exports. However, imports of services for China saw a substantial deceleration, turning negative in Q3 2024.

Regional trade trends

In Q3 2024, developed countries reversed a previous downward trend, with both imports and exports showing robust growth. In contrast, developing countries saw weaker trade performance, with quarter-over-quarter growth falling below the annual average, and in the case of imports turning negative. Still, developing countries' trade largely outperformed developed countries' trade on a yearly basis. South-South trade growth was negative in Q3 2024, primarily due to below-average trade growth with the East Asian region.

Most regions experienced positive overall trade growth during Q3 2024, however trade contracted in the West and South Asia regions, as well as in imports for the Pacific region. Export growth slowed in East Asia and Africa but increased in North America and Europe. Intra-regional trade growth was generally positive in Q3 2024, except in North America and Africa. On an annual basis, trade growth was stronger in North America and East Asia, while negative in Europe, the region comprising the Russian Federation and in the Pacific region.

Global trade dynamics and trade dependence

Since the second half of 2022, there has been a significant shift towards more politically aligned trade relationships. This shift suggests that bilateral trade has increasingly favoured countries with similar geopolitical positions, a trend often referred to as friend-shoring. By the second half of 2023, this trend began to stabilize. At the same time, global trade has become more concentrated around major trading partners, although this trend started to reverse in 2024.

Geo economic issues continue to play a significant role in shaping key bilateral trade trends. These factors not only impact trade between the major economies but can also influence their trade dynamics with other trading partners. Another significant factor impacting bilateral trade is the ongoing reshaping of value chains.

Note: The dependence of an economy on another is calculated as the ratio of their bilateral trade over the total trade of the dependent economy. Annual change is calculated as a four-quarter average of this ratio relative to the same period in the previous year. Data for Russian Federation includes estimates.

Global trade trends at the sectoral level

Trade growth has shown significant variation across sectors over the past four quarters. This diversity is particularly evident in Q3 2024, where global trade growth was most pronounced in information and communication technology (ICT) sectors, such as communication and office equipment, as well as in apparel. On the other hand, global trade value declined for sectors such as road vehicles, textiles, metals, and energy. On an annual basis, global trade remains negative in several sectors, including apparel, chemicals, energy, metals, and other manufacturing industries. This heterogeneity highlights the uneven recovery and shifting dynamics within global trade, with some sectors continuing to lag while others experience growth.

Road Ahead

India is presently known as one of the most important players in the global economic landscape. Its trade policies, Government reforms, and inherent economic strengths have contributed to its standing as one of the most sought-after destinations for foreign investments in the world. India's Production-Linked Incentive (PLI) schemes have emerged as a catalyst for improving the trade balance by fostering domestic manufacturing. These initiatives, spanning sectors like electronics, pharmaceuticals, and textiles, incentivize companies to enhance production capabilities. The resultant increase in manufacturing not only meets domestic demand but also positions India as a competitive exporter. By reducing import dependency and promoting the export of value-added goods, the PLI schemes contribute significantly to narrowing the trade deficit. This strategic shift aligns with India's goal of becoming self-reliant and underscores the pivotal role of targeted incentives in bolstering the country's trade dynamics. Also, technological, and infrastructural development being carried out across the country augurs well for the trade and economic sector in the years to come. The Government of India has been working on striking important deals with the European Unions and Governments of various countries to increase contribution towards the economic development of the country and growth in the global market. Significant changes to foreign trade policy such as enabling payment and settlement in the Indian Rupee and opening of special rupee Vostro accounts supported by Indian banks will bring ease to international trade transactions. With more than 35 countries expressing interest in this mechanism, the long-term aim is to internationalize the rupee and reduce the depreciation of the domestic currency against the dollar.

INDIAN NUTRACEUTICALS INDUSTRY

The global nutraceutical market is currently estimated at around $400 billion, blending the fields of food, pharmaceuticals, and biotechnology. India stands out as a key player, supported by its rich heritage of traditional knowledge, especially in Ayurveda, and a unique ecosystem that fosters growth in this sector. However, India's share remains under 2% globally, primarily due to a lack of defined industry classification within Indian ministries, limiting targeted sector support.

Recognizing the sector's immense potential, the Council of Scientific and Industrial Research (CSIR) constituted a Nutraceutical Sector Task Force (TF) in November 2021 under the chairmanship of the Principal Scientific Adviser to the Government of India. This Task Force includes representatives from various ministries, including the Department of Commerce, the Department of Pharmaceuticals, the Food Safety and Standards Authority of India (FSSAI), the Ministry of AYUSH, and the Ministry of Food Processing. The TF also includes significant industry representation, ensuring that industry concerns and challenges are directly addressed. The Task Force's mandate includes proposing policy measures to address challenges and drive initiatives toward the "Harmonized System of Nomenclature" and other international standards.

Key advantages for India in the nutraceutical industry include:

- A longstanding history in health science, especially Ayurveda, offering unique traditional knowledge.
- The presence of 52 agroclimatic zones, making India ideal for cultivating medicinal plants.
- A robust hub of over 1,700 medicinal plants, including globally recognized curcumin, bacopa and ashwagandha, awaiting modern scientific validation.

- Expertise in pharmaceutical formulation, influencing high-quality nutraceutical standards.
- A thriving startup ecosystem and a growing number of successful nutraceutical companies catalysing sectoral growth.

The TF's initiatives have led to significant advancements, including:

- Introduction of HSN Codes: Development of the first-ever Harmonized System of Nomenclature codes for streamlined trade.
- PLI Scheme: Creation of the first-ever Production-Linked Incentive (PLI) scheme for nutraceuticals.
- Nutraceutical Industry Panel: Formation of a dedicated nutraceutical industry panel under SHEFEXIL (Shellac & Forest Products Export Promotion Council) to enhance regulatory and export support.
- Compliance and Export Initiatives: SHEFEXIL has recommended nutraceuticals remain classified as food products under FSSAI's jurisdiction. Additionally, nutraceutical exporters are now included in the Remission of Duties and Taxes on Export Products (RoDTEP) Scheme, aligned with the Biodiversity Act 2023, to offset export costs and ensure EU compliance.

India has also prioritized infrastructure support, with nutraceutical incubation hubs and centers of excellence. NIFTEM-Kundli, Centurion University, and AIC-CSIR-CCMB have developed hubs fostering innovation, while the Kerala government inaugurated the first government-backed Nutraceutical Centre of Excellence in 2024.

Through the Department of Commerce, India has showcased its nutraceutical strengths at global trade fairs, enhancing visibility and forging connections with international stakeholders. The collaboration between the Task Force and the Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs (CBIC) is working toward a unique HSN code to streamline exports and simplify customs procedures.

With these strategic initiatives, India's nutraceutical sector is set for unprecedented growth. India aims to position itself as a global leader in nutraceuticals, combining traditional knowledge with modern science to attract global partnerships and investments.

OUR BUSINESS STRATEGIES

a) Backward integrating our nutraceutical product business to capitalize on the global demand for nutraceutical products

We are a one stop destination for various nutritional, Health and sports supplement products, which are largely biased towards the food products providing health benefits in addition to their nutritional values, reflecting our ability in catering to nutritional as well as health needs of the end customers. Our company is based in Mumbai, offering diverse range of captivated nutritional supplements and components. We offer products across mainly seven product categories, i.e. Amino Acids, Health Supplement, Herbal Extract, Nucleotide, Protein, Sports Nutrition, and Vitamin. Thus, positioning us favorably to adapt to the growing awareness with respect to the needs of nutrition in the food products.

As a part of our proposed backward integration initiatives, we are in the process of setting up a Manufacturing Facility at JNPA SEZ, through investment in our Wholly-Owned Subsidiary (WOS) Company, Easy Raw Materials Private Limited (ERMPL). The manufacturing facility is proposed to be developed, operated and maintained by our WOS company for setting up of manufacturing facility which will include production, procurement and export, warehousing and labelling and packaging, ensuring an efficient supply chain. Our WOS company pursuant to a lease deed dated September 28, 2023, have been allotted an industrial land admeasuring approximately 4,120 Sq. Mt. (44,347 Sq. Ft.) on a leasehold basis for a period of 60 years in the JNPA SEZ area. Pursuant to setting up the Manufacturing Facility, we intend to commence the manufacturing of nutraceutical products, including Tablets, Capsules, Jars and Sachets, at the proposed Manufacturing Facility, in the nutraceutical industry.

Through this backward integration, following benefits shall be accrued to our Company:

a) Bulk Procurement Cost Savings

- b) Centralized Sourcing & Supply Chain Efficiency
- c) Tax & Duty Benefits on Raw Material Imports
- d) Competitive Advantage & Market Expansion

We intend to deploy ₹3,468.33Lakhs from the Net Proceeds towards setting up of proposed Manufacturing Facility. For further details, see “Objects of the Offer - Financing the capital expenditure towards setting up of the Manufacturing Facility through investment in our Wholly-Owned Subsidiary (WOS) Company, Easy Raw Materials Private Limited” on page 99 of this Prospectus.

The rationale behind raising funds for investment in our wholly owned subsidiary, Easy Raw Materials Private Limited (ERMPL), instead of undertaking manufacturing directly under Chemkart India Limited (CIL) is as follows:

ERMPL was incorporated in 2020 with a specific objective to establish a dedicated manufacturing unit for nutraceutical products. The Company was non-operational during FY 2023, FY 2024, and FY 2025 as it was engaged in identifying a strategically viable and regulation-compliant location for setting up the plant and thus company was loss making in those years.

Subsequently, ERMPL successfully participated in a public tender issued by Jawaharlal Nehru Port Authority (JNPA) on 23rd August 2022, and was allotted land through issuance of the first Letter of Allotment (LOA) on 26th May 2023. A formal lease deed was executed on 28th September 2023, and ERMPL has since been actively progressing with compliance and infrastructural formalities required to commence operations. These include obtaining the Provisional Fire NOC and submitting the detailed project report to JNPA for approval. Accordingly, ERMPL remained non-operational purely due to the time-bound regulatory and infrastructural processes required for greenfield setup.

The decision to undertake manufacturing through ERMPL—set up in a Special Economic Zone (SEZ)—is driven by the strategic and financial advantages offered under the SEZ framework, including:

- Income tax exemptions on export profits
- Exemption from customs duties on imported capital goods and raw materials
- Operational benefits related to infrastructure, logistics, and single-window clearance mechanisms

At the same time, SEZ units are subject to certain restrictions for domestic sales and trading, which could potentially limit flexibility if manufacturing were carried out directly by our company. To retain operational agility in domestic trading and distribution while availing SEZ benefits for exports, the Company strategically decided to separate its trading and manufacturing activities by operating the SEZ-based manufacturing unit through its wholly owned subsidiary, ERMPL.

This structure enables the Group to optimize both domestic and export operations while ensuring regulatory compliance and financial efficiency.

b) Continue to focus on product innovation and design and further diversify our portfolio

Our focus on R&D has been instrumental in driving the growth of our business and enhancing our ability to meet the specific requirements of our customers. We intend to further diversify our product portfolio through our R&D initiatives. We are focused on investing in technology, equipment and skilled workforce with the aim of delivering high-quality, innovative and technology-driven products in response to customer requirements thereby strengthening our relationships with our customers across a range of product categories. We intend to introduce diverse range of nutraceuticals and health supplements, including Tablets, Capsules, Jars and Sachets through the proposed manufacturing facility. We intend to manufacture products with advanced machinery for precise formulations and efficient workflows and with robust quality assurance systems to meet stringent industry benchmarks.

c) Improve Debt – Equity Ratio

As at March 31, 2025, our debt - equity ratio stands at 0.32. We intend to repay certain amount of the loans to improve our debt equity ratio and also this will help our company to obtain working capital loans / term loans for expansion in future which will improve our operational efficiency. Further, repayment of loans and borrowings will reduce burden of repayment of loans repayable and enhance our financial stability and reduce long term liabilities.

d) Leveraging our market skills and relationships

This is a continuous process in our organization and the skills that we impart in our people, gives importance to customers. We aim to enhance the growth by leveraging our relationships and further enhancing customer satisfaction. We plan to

2.4 Significant Accounting Policies

a Use of Estimates

The preparation of the Restated Consolidated Summary Statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires the management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets, Liabilities, revenues and expenses and disclosure of contingent liabilities on the date of the Restated Consolidated Summary Statements. The estimates and assumptions used in the accompanying Restated Consolidated Summary Statements are based upon management's evaluation of the relevant facts and circumstances as of the dates of the Restated Consolidated Summary Statements. Actual results could differ from the estimates and assumptions used in preparing the accompanying Restated Consolidated Summary Statement. Any revision to accounting estimates is recognized prospectively in current and future periods.

b Property, Plant and Equipment

-Recognition & Measurement

Property, plant and equipment are stated at cost, net of accumulated depreciation (other than freehold land) and impairment losses, if any. The cost comprises purchase price, borrowing costs if capitalisation criteria are met and directly attributable cost of bringing the asset to its working condition for the intended use. Capitalisation of costs in the carrying amount of property, plant and equipment ceases when the item is in the location and condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by the Group. Any trade discounts and rebates are deducted in arriving at the purchase price.

The Group identifies and determines cost of each component/ part of the asset separately, if the component/ part has a cost which is significant to the total cost of the asset and has useful life that is materially different from that of the remaining asset. These components are depreciated separately over their useful lives; the remaining components are depreciated over the life of the principal asset.

-Subsequent Costs

Subsequent expenditure related to an item of property, plant and equipment is added to its book value only if it increases the future benefits from the existing asset beyond its previously assessed standard of performance. Incomes and expenses related to the incidental operations not necessary to bring the item to the location and the condition necessary for it to be capable of operating in the manner intended by the Group are recognised in the Statement of profit and loss. All other expenses on existing property, plant and equipment, including day-to-day repair and maintenance expenditure and cost of replacing parts, are charged to the Statement of Profit & Loss for the period/year in which such expenses are incurred.

Capital work-in-progress comprises of property, plant and equipment that are not ready for their intended use at the end of reporting period and are carried at cost comprising direct costs, related incidental expenses, other directly attributable costs and borrowing costs.

-Disposal

An item of property, plant and equipment is derecognised upon disposal or when no future benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Gains and losses on disposal of an item of property, plant and equipment are determined by comparing the proceeds from disposal with the carrying amount of property, plant and equipment, and are recognised net within other income/ expenses in the statement of profit and loss.

c Intangible assets and goodwill

Goodwill arising on the acquisition of subsidiaries is measured at cost less accumulated impairment losses

d Depreciation and amortization

Depreciation on Property Plant and Equipment is provided on the written-down-value method using the management assessed useful lives of the assets which is in line with the manner prescribed in Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013. Estimated useful lives of the assets, based on technical assessment, which are different in certain cases from those prescribed in Schedule II of the Act are as follows:

Type of Assets	Useful Life Considered as per Management estimate	Useful Life as per schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013
Plant and Equipment	8 Years	15 Years
Office equipment	3 Years	5 Years

e Impairment of assets

The Group assesses at each balance sheet date whether there is any indication that an asset may be impaired. If any such indication exists, the Group estimates the recoverable amount of the asset. If such recoverable amount of the asset or recoverable amount of the cash generating unit to which the asset belongs is less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount is reduced to its recoverable amount. The reduction is treated as an impairment loss and is recognized in the Profit and Loss Account. If at the Balance Sheet date there is an indication that if a previously assessed impairment loss no longer exists, the recoverable amount is reassessed and the asset is reflected at the recoverable amount.

f Investment

Investments are classified into current investments and non-current investments. Current investments i.e. investments that are readily realizable and intended to be held for not more than a year valued at cost. Any permanent reduction in the carrying amount or any reversals of such, reductions are charged or credited to the Statement of Profit & Loss Account.

Non-current investments are stated at cost. Provision for diminution in the value of these investments is made only if such decline is other than temporary, in the opinion of the management.

g Inventories

Inventories held under current assets are valued at cost or net realizable value, whichever is less. Cost is determined on weighted average basis.

Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs of completion and estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

h Cash and cash equivalents

The Group considers all highly liquid financial instruments, which includes cash in hand, bank balances, and all short term deposits or investments, which are readily convertible into known amount of cash that are subject to an insignificant risk of change in value and having original maturities of three months or less from the date of purchase, to be cash equivalents.

i Revenue recognition

Income from sale of goods is recognized on transfer of significant risks and rewards of ownership of the goods to the customer and to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Group and the reliably measured.

Interest income is recognised on time proportion basis taking into account the amount outstanding and rate applicable.

j Employee Benefits

Short Term employee benefits

Employee benefits payable wholly within twelve months of rendering the service are classified as short-term employee benefits. The undiscounted amount of short-term employee benefits expected to be paid in exchange for the services rendered by employees is recognized during the period/year.

Contributions are made in accordance with the rules of the statute and are recognised as expenses when employees render service entitling them to the contributions.

(b) Defined benefit plans

The employees' gratuity scheme is a defined benefit plan. The present value of the obligation under such defined benefit plans is determined based on actuarial valuation using the projected unit credit method, which recognises each period of service as giving rise to additional unit of employee benefit entitlement and measures each unit separately to build up the final obligation.

The obligation is measured at the present value of the estimated future cash flows. The discount rates used for determining the present value of the obligation under defined benefit plans, is based on the market yields on government securities as at the reporting date, having maturity periods approximating to the terms of related obligations.

In case of funded plans, the fair value of the planned assets is reduced from the gross obligation under the defined benefit plans, to recognise the obligation on net basis. When the benefits of the plan are changed or when a plan is curtailed, the resulting change in benefits that relates to past service or the gain or loss on curtailment is recognised immediately in the statement of profit and loss. Net interest is calculated by applying the discount rate to the net defined benefit liability or asset. the Group recognises gains/ losses on settlement of a defined plan when the settlement occurs.

k Foreign Currency Transactions

Foreign currency transactions are recorded using the exchange rates prevailing on the date of the respective transactions or that approximates the actual rate at the date of transaction. Exchange differences arising on foreign currency transactions, settled during the year, are recognised in the statement of profit and loss.

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies as at the balance sheet date are reported using the foreign exchange rates as at the balance sheet date. The resultant exchange differences are recognized in the Statement of Profit & Loss. Non-monetary assets and liabilities are carried at the rates prevailing on the date of transaction.

I Taxation

(a) Current Year Income Tax:

Provision for current tax is made considering various allowances and benefit available to the Group under the provisions of Income Tax Act, 1961.

(b) Deferred Income Tax:

In accordance with Accounting Standard AS-22 "Accounting for Taxes on Income", deferred tax resulting from timing differences between book and tax profits are accounted for at tax rate substantially enacted by the Balance Sheet date to the extent the timing differences are expected to be crystallized.

Deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent there is reasonable certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realised. In situations where the Group has unabsorbed depreciation or carry forward tax losses, all deferred tax assets are recognised only if there is virtual certainty supported by convincing evidence that they can be realised against future taxable profits. Deferred tax assets are reviewed for the appropriateness of their respective carrying amounts at each balance sheet date.

m Earnings Per Shares

Basic earning per share is computed by dividing the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period.

Diluted earning per share is computed by taking into account the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period and the weighted average number of equity shares which would be issued on conversion of all dilutive potential equity shares into equity shares.

n Cash Flow Statements

Cash flows are reported using the indirect method, whereby net profit/loss before tax is adjusted for the effects of transactions of non-cash nature, any deferrals of accruals of past or future operating cash receipts or payments and item of income or expense associated with investing or financing cash flows. The cash flows from operating, investing and financing activities of the Group are segregated.

o Provisions, Contingent liabilities and Contingent assets

The Group recognizes a provision when there is a present obligation as a result of a past event that probably requires an outflow of resources and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation.

A disclosure for a contingent liability is made when there is a possible obligation or a present obligation that may, but probably will not, require an outflow of resources.

Where there is a possible obligation or a present obligation but the likelihood of outflow of resources is remote, no provision or disclosure is made.

Contingent Assets are neither recognized nor disclosed.
